FCC Quarterly Programming Report October – December, 2010

Date	Key 1	Synopsis	Guest/Reporter
		The history, production, global commerce and joys of chocolate from the Mayan and Aztec cultures to modern treats. A Field Museum exhibit opens Saturday at the Minnesota History Center and runs	Gretchen Baker, Brian T.
10/1	HISTORY	until January 2, 2011.	McElrath University of Minnesota President Robert Bruininks was the featured guest on the program "Bright Ideas" on September 28, 2010. Minnesota Public Radio's Stephen Smith hosted the live discussion in the UBS Forum at MPR's St. Paul 10/1	EDUCATION	headquarters.	Robert Bruininks Independence Party gubernatorial candidate Tom Horner joins Midday to answer questions as part of 10/4	STATE POLITICS / GOV	this week's "Meet the Candidates" series.	Tom Horner Tom Emmer, Tom Horner and Mark Dayton debated immigration, trade, education, the state economy, taxes and the budget at a debate held	Tom Emmer Tom Horner, Mark 10/4	STATE POLITICS / GOV	Sunday Oct 3, 2010 at Mt. Zion Temple in St. Paul.	Dayton Republican candidate for governor Tom Emmer joins Midday to answer questions about the key 10/5	STATE POLITICS / GOV	issues in the gubernatorial election.	Tom Emmer
		As the U.S. Supreme Court begins its new term, Justice Stephen Breyer discusses his approach to interpreting the constitution. Breyer spoke at the John F. Kennedy Presidential Library in Boston about his book, "Making Our Democracy Work: A 10/5	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	Judge's View."	Stephen Breyer
		Howard Sinker previews the American League
		Division Series and the Twins chances for winning	Howard Sinker, Harmon
10/6	SPORTS	the World Series.	Killebrew

		Teachers matter. A lot. Studies show that students with the best teachers learn three times as much as students with the worst teachers. Politicians and education reformers are calling for big changes in how teachers are trained and evaluated - and in the	American RadioWorks 10/6	EDUCATION	way teachers are hired and fired too.	documentary.
		DFL gubernatorial candidate Mark Dayton joins ,	Midday to answer questions about the key issues
10/7	STATE POLITICS / GOV	facing the state.	Mark Dayton Teacher quality has been getting lots of attention lately, with politicians and education reformers calling for big changes in how teachers are trained and evaluated. A group of teachers, administrators, parents and students gathered in Minnesota Public 40/=		Radio's UBS Forum to discuss what makes a good
10/7	EDUCATION	teacher.	Multiple participants Midday welcomes ideas from teachers, parents and students on the best way for teachers to teach, so 40/0		students can learn. ARW/MPR education reporters	Full Harford Teach Walter
10/8	EDUCATION	share what they've learned.	Emily Hanford, Tom Weber MPR's first classical music announcer, Arthur Hoehn, is inducted into the Museum of Broadcasting Hall of Fame on Saturday, October 9, 2010. Best known for hosting "Music Through the 10/0	MEDIA / OLIH TUDE / ADTO	Night," Arthur joins Midday to discuss his 40-year career in radio.	A with the Line of the
10/8	MEDIA / CULTURE / ARTS		Arthur Hoehn Polls show the gubernatorial race is close, and all 8 members of Minnesota's congressional delegation and 201 legislators are up for election on 40/44		November 2. What's likely to happen in the next three weeks?	Maureen Shaver, Todd Rapp,
10/11	STATE POLITICS / GOV		Jack Uldrich Ten years ago this week, suicide bombers blasted a hole in the side of the USS Cole while it sat in a harbor in Yemen. Seventeen American sailors were killed in the terrorist attack, and dozens more	Decumentory from American injured. Many of the crew members on the Cole	Documentary from American 10/11	LUCTORY	that day remember the attack in vivid detail.	Abroad "Remembering the Cole."
10/11	HISTORY	Minneapolis Superintendent Bernadeia Johnson	COIC. proposes to close North High School because enrollment has dropped nearly 80 percent since 2005. A school board member joins Midday to talk about how the district is addressing the challenges 10/12	FDUCATION	of declining enrollment.	ludy Farmor
10/12	EDUCATION	or deciming emornicut.	Judy Farmer

		Three candidates wing to represent Minnesote's 1st Three candidates vying to represent Minnesota's 1st Congressional District went head-to-head on health care reform, the federal budget deficit and the wars
		_
40/40		in Iraq and Afghanistan at a debate Monday in	Steven Wilson, Randy 10/12	STATE POLITICS / GOV	Mankato.	Demmer, Tim Walz, China says awarding the Nobel Peace Prize to dissident Liu Xiaobo was an attack on the country and an attempt to change its political system, and has retaliated by canceling another set of meetings with the Norwegian government. International INTERNATIONAL POLITICS /	Relations Professor Roy Grow joins Midday to take 10/13	GOVERNMENT	questions about that and other issues facing China.	Ray Grow,
		The major party candidates for governor Republican Tom Emmer, Democrat Mark Dayton, and the Independence Party's Tom Horner debate issues that affect Minnesota's children. The debate was sponsored by Children's Hospitals and Clinics of Minnesota, the Minnesota Early Learning	Tom Emmer, Mark Dayton, 10/13	STATE POLITICS / GOV	Foundation, and MinnPost.	Tom Horner University of Minnesota Climatologist Mark Seeley joins Midday to take questions about the 10/14	ENVIRNONMENT / SCIENCE	history and science of weather.	Mark Seeley American RadioWorks' Stephen Smith and Kate Ellis join Midday to talk about their new book, "Say it Loud!: Great Speeches on Civil Rights and 10/14	HISTORY	African American Identity."	Stephen Smith, Kate Ellis Playwright and humorist Kevin Kling, one of Minnesota's best-known storytellers, speaks at the Maplewood Library as part of the Club Book program. Along with several plays, Kling is the author of two collections of stories, "The Dog Says
10/15	CULTURE / ARTS	How" and "Holiday Inn."	Kevin Kling Playwright and storyteller Kevin Kling tells more stories at his Club Book appearance at the 10/15	CULTURE / ARTS	Maplewood Library.	Kevin Kling
		The Minnesota Legislature convenes in special session today to pass a flood relief package for southern Minnesota. The $80 million bill would STATE POLITICS /	help local governments rebuild roads, provide 10/18	GOVERNMENT	loans, and offer grants to small businesses.	Tim Pugmire Former Vice President Walter Mondale speaks at the Westminster Town Hall Forum in downtown Minneapolis about his new book, "The Good Fight:
10/18	HISTORY	A life in Liberal Politics.	Walter Mondale

		The condidates for Secretary of State in Minnesote
		The candidates for Secretary of State in Minnesota 40/40	STATE POLITICS /	join Gary Eichten on Midday to discuss issues	Mad Ditable Day On and 10/19	GOVERNMENT	facing the state and take questions from listeners.	Mark Ritchie, Dan Severson Former U.S. Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice speaks at the National Press Club about her new book "Extraordinary, Ordinary People: A Memoir of Family", an account of her childhood in racially segregated Birmingham and how that childhood shaped her career in diplomacy and politics. Rice spoke at the National Press Club in Washington, 10/19	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	DC.	Condoleezza Rice MPR Capitol reporters Tom Scheck and Tim Pugmire, along with political editor Mike Mulcahy, STATE POLITICS /	join Midday to take questions about the race for	Mike Mulcahy, Tom Scheck,
10/20	GOVERNMENT	governor in Minnesota and other political issues.	Tim Pugmire National Public Radio's Scott Simon talks about his new book, "Baby, We Were Meant for Each Other." In the book, Simon tells the story of how he and his wife adopted their daughters from China 10/20	SOCIAL ISSUES	and the story of other adoptive families.	Scott Simon Twitter has become an online sensation, with some 160 million registered users and almost 100 million "tweets" posted every day. Two of the co-founders of Twitter explain how this company, and this phenomenon, came to be and where it is headed.
		Evan Williams and Biz Stone spoke at the 2010
10/21	MEDIA	Aspen Ideas Festival.	Biz Stone, Evan Williams Best-selling author Alexander McCall Smith joined Garrison Keillor on stage at the Fitzgerald Theater to talk about literature and the life of a writer.
		McCall Smith's new book is called, "The Charming	Garrison, Keillor, Alexander
10/21	CULTURE / ARTS	Quirks of Others."	McCall Smith
10/21	OGETORE, ARTO	Former Vice President Walter Mondale joins	Wieden Crimar Midday to take questions about his new political memoir, "The Good Fight: A life in Liberal Politics." The book traces Mondale's career from a young Minnesota attorney general to Vice President. While personal, it's also the story of half 10/22	HISTORY	a century of progressive	Walter Mondale
. 5/22	THOTOICE	An "Intelligence Squared" debate features two panelists for, and two panelists against, the	Zeba Khan, Maajid Nawaz, 10/22	SOCIAL ISSUES	proposition: Islam is a religion of peace.	Ayaan Hirsi Ali, Douglas Murray
10122	OCOIAL IOUULU	5th district Congressman Keith Ellison debates his	manay
	CTATE DOLUTION	major party challengers Joel Demos and Tom	Keith Ellison, Jos! Damas Tam
10/25	STATE POLITICS /	Schrunk.	Keith Ellison, Joel Demos, Tom Schrunk
10/23	GOVERNMENT	Deniuna.	Schrunk

		Fourth District U.S. Congresswoman Betty
	STATE POLITICS /	McCollum debates her major party challengers,	Betty McCollum, Teresa
10/25	GOVERNMENT	Teresa Collett and Steve Carlson.	Collett, Steve Carlson
10/20	30 VERWINE IVI	Eighth District U.S. Congressman James Oberstar	Comott, Otoro Garicon debates his GOP challenger Chip Cravaack, in a OTATE POLITION /	Debate Minnesota event in Grand Rapids on	James Oberstar, Chip
10/25	STATE POLITICS / GOVERNMENT	October 22, 2010.	Cravaack
10/20	COVERNIENT	Second District Republican Rep. John Kline	Oravadon
	CTATE DOLUTION	debates his DFL challenger Shelley Madore on the 10/26	STATE POLITICS / GOVERNMENT	major issues facing the country.	John Kline, Shelley Madore
10/20	GOVERNIVIENT	Third District Rep. Erik Paulsen debates his DFL	Committee, Chemey Madere
	07475 0047400 /	challenger Jim Meffert and IP challenger Jon	Frile Davidson, line Moffort, lon
10/26	STATE POLITICS / GOVERNMENT	Oleson on the major issues facing the country.	Erik Paulsen, Jim Meffert, Jon Oleson
10/20	GOVERNIVIENT	Best-selling author Steven Johnson talks about his	Giosoff new book, "Where Good Ideas Come From: The Natural History of Innovation," in an event hosted 10/26	BUSINESS / EDUCATION	by APM's John Moe in MPR's UBS Forum.	Steven Johnson, John Moe
10,20	BOOMESO / EBOOMMON	Seventh District Rep. Collin Peterson debates his	Ctoron connect, com mee major party challengers Republican Lee Byberg
	STATE POLITICS /	and IP candidate Glen Menze about the major	Collin Peterson, Lee Byberg,
10/27	GOVERNMENT	issues facing the country.	Glen Menze Attorney General Lori Swanson and her challengers Republican Chris Barden and Resource Party candidate David Hoch appeared on TPT's	Lavi Curanaan Chris Bardan
	STATE POLITICS /	Almanac program hosted by Cathy Wurzer and	Lori Swanson, Chris Barden, David Hoch, Cathy Wurzer,
10/27	GOVERNMENT	Eric Eskola.	Eric Eskola Hear the three major party candidates for governor debate the issues in the final week of the campaign.
	STATE POLITICS /	They debated at Minnesota State University-	Tom Emmer, Mark Dayton, 10/27	GOVERNMENT	Mankato on October 26, 2010.	Tom Horner 6th District Rep. Michele Bachmann debates her STATE POLITICS /	challengers Tarryl Clark and Bob Anderson about	Michele Bachman, Tarryl Clark,
10/28	GOVERNMENT	the major issues facing the country.	Bob Anderson Grand Property of the Con-
10/22	STATE POLITICS /	State Auditor Rebecca Otto debates her GOP
10/28	GOVERNMENT	challenger, former State Auditor Pat Anderson.	Rebecca Otto, Pat Anderson

			_
		6th District Rep. Michele Bachmann is running for a third term in the U.S. House. She debated her challengers DFL State Sen. Tarryl Clark and Independence Party candidate Bob Anderson Oct.
		26 at the St. Cloud Civic Center. The event was STATE POLITICS /	sponsored by the St. Cloud Area Chamber of	Michele Bachman, Tarryl Clark,
10/28	GOVERNMENT	Commerce.	Bob Anderson
		The House and Senate majority and minority leaders discuss the key issues in the legislative	David Senjem, Larry STATE POLITICS /	campaigns this year. 201 members of the House	Pogemiller, Kurt Zellers, Tony
10/29	GOVERNMENT	and Senate are on the ballot Tuesday.	Sertich Six Minnesotans who have decided on their choice for Governor discuss the issues and factors that influenced their decisionand what they want the new Governor to actually do. Two supporters of	Avonelle Lovhaug, Pat Kittler, STATE POLITICS /	each major party candidate talk to Gary Eichten on	Deb Loon, Nancy LaRoche,
10/29	GOVERNMENT	Midday.	David Driscoll, Trish Clancy Congressional expert Steven Smith highlights the interesting races for Congress and Governor around STATE POLITICS /	the country. Will the GOP gain control of 11/1	GOVERNMENT	Congress, and what changes will we see if they do?	Steven Smith Democrat Mark Dayton, Republican Tom Emmer and the Independence Party's Tom Horner sparred over the issues Sunday as the three candidates for governor met for their 26th and final debate before Minnesotans head to the polls on Tuesday. The debate, held at the Fitzgerald Theater in St. Paul, 07475 00117100 /	was hosted by Minnesota Public Radio and	Moule Double Torre France
11/1	STATE POLITICS / GOVERNMENT	moderated by Midday host Gary Eichten.	Mark Dayton, Tom Emmer, Tom Horner
1 1/ 1	GOVERNIVIENT	Longtime elections manager Joe Mansky answers	Tom Home all questions about voting procedures and 11/2	STATE POLITICS / GOVERNMENT	requirements and vote counting procedures.	Joe Mansky
11/2	GOVERNIMENT	Fifty years ago, in the fall of 1960, millions of	Joe Marisky Americans tuned in to watch Sen. John Kennedy of Massachusetts and Vice President Richard Nixon in the first-ever nationally televised presidential debates. Kennedy Advisors Ted Sorensen and William Wilson, along with veteran journalists Russell Baker, Marty Nolan and Sandy Vanocur, reflect on those historical debates and how they	Ted Sorensen, William Wilson, changed presidential politics. They spoke at the	Russell Baker, Marty Nolan, 11/2	HISTORY	JFK Library in Boston.	Sandy Vanocur

		M: Minnesota's race for governor looks like it's headed for a recount. Democrat Mark Dayton holds a slight lead over Republican Tom Emmer. Meanwhile, Republicans won control of the State Legislature, and longtime Democratic Congressman Jim Oberstar was defeated by Republican Chip
	STATE POLITICS /	Cravaack. Midday looks at the results of Tuesday's	Mike Mulcahy, Maureen
11/3	GOVERNMENT	election, and what's next.	Shaver, Todd Rupp President Barack Obama holds a press conference in Washington to discuss Tuesday's election, and what it means going forward. Republicans came away with a resounding victory in the midterm elections, with a commanding majority in the	President Obama Press
11/3	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	House and gains in the Senate.	Conference Congressman Jim Oberstar holds a press conference to discuss his defeat.
	STATE POLITICS /	Democrat Mark Dayton discusses the latest on the 11/3	GOVERNMENT	gubernatorial race.	Jim Oberstar, Mark Dayton Newly re-elected Secretary of State Mark Ritchie
	STATE POLITICS /	explains the process for examining the votes cast
11/4	GOVERNMENT	and the probable recount in the Governor's race.	Mark Ritchie Candy Crowley, CNN's chief political correspondent, discusses the midterm elections and what they mean for America. Crowley speaks live at the Westminster Town Hall Forum in downtown 11/4	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	Minneapolis.	Candy Crowley Mark Dayton, the probable Governor-elect, talks to MPR's Gary Eichten about the election results and the job ahead. For the rest of the hour, former Finance Commissioner Pam Wheelock talks about budget transitions between governors, and budget negotiations when the governor and legislature are 11/5	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	of different parties.	Mark Dayton, Pam Wheelock
1.75		Veterinarian Kate An Hunter and her dog, Ansel, stop by the MPR studios to answer questions about 11/5	EDUCATION	animal care and training.	Kate An Hunter
11/0	EDUCATION	Minn. House Speaker-elect Kurt Zellers (R-Maple	Tato / III Tuntoi Grove) and Senate Majority-leader elect Amy Koch (R-Buffalo) join Midday to answer questions 07477 0047700 /	from the MPR audience about their legislative 11/0	STATE POLITICS /	priorities and their ideas to balance the budget.	Kurt Zallars Amy Kach
11/8	GOVERNMENT	priorities and their ideas to barance the budget.	Kurt Zellers, Amy Koch

		Supreme Court Justice Alan Page talks about his life and career. Page is the subject of a new biography, "All Rise: The Remarkable Journey of 11/8	STATE POLITICS / GOVERNMENT	Alan Page."	Alan Page 1 1/0	GOVERNIVIENT	House and Senate DFL-ers are in the minority for	Alairrage the first time in 28 years. The newly-selected minority leaders join Midday to talk about ,	priorities, issues, and strategy for the 2011
11/9	STATE POLITICS /	legislative session.	Sen. Tom Bakk Rep. Paul Thissen
11/9	GOVERNMENT	Ceci Connolly, former health care reporter for The	Kep. Faul IIIISSell
		Washington Post, spoke at the University of St.
		Thomas Opus School of Business about the nation's new health care law and what Congress 11/9	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	may do to change it.	Ceci Connolly
11/3	INATIONAL I OLITICO / GOV	On November 11, 1940, one of the deadliest	Cool Corniony blizzards this region has ever seen struck. The Armistice Day Storm killed 49 people in Minnesota, 150 nationwide. One of the most tragic chapters of the storm occurred on the rivers, lakes and wetlands of the Midwest. Hundreds of duck hunters, trapped by the storm, found themselves in 11/9	HISTORY	a life-and-death struggle.
		The Independence Party's candidate, Tom Horner, received just fewer than 12 percent of the vote. He joins Midday to talk about why he ran, what he learned, and why he lost. Did he cost Republican STATE POLITICS /	Tom Emmer the election? Should the IP fold its 11/10	GOVERNMENT	tent?	Tom Horner
		When "The World War I Living History Project" produced a radio documentary in 2006, there were 14 surviving American veterans of that war. The documentary tells the story of WWI with their help.
		Today only one veteran is still living: 109-year-old 11/10	HISTORY	Frank Buckles.
		Award-winning military correspondent Joseph Galloway joins Midday to talk about the men and women who serve in the military, and the lessons we can learn from the wars they have fought.
		Galloway earned the Bronze Star for valor for rescuing a wounded soldier under heavy fire in the 11/11	HISTORY	Ia Drang Valley in Vietnam in 1965.	Joseph Galloway

			Т
		The top elections officials in Hennepin, Ramsey and Washington Counties, and 2008 recount attorneys, met at the Humphrey Institute to analyze the counting of the votes in the 2010 Gubernatorial	Joseph Mansky, Rachel Smith, election. DFL candidate Mark Dayton leads by	Kevin Corbid, Frederic "Fritz"
	STATE POLITICS /	8755 votes with only one county left to certify its	Knaack, David Lillehaug;
11/11	GOVERNMENT	votes.	Lawrence Jacobs
		A bipartisan commission chaired by former Republican Sen. Alan Simpson and former Clinton White House chief of staff Erskine Bowles may propose cutting Social Security benefits, slashing government spending and cutting $100 billion a year in tax breaks for individuals and businesses.
		What are the best options to cut trillions from the 11/12	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	deficit?	Diane Lim Rogers
		One of Minnesota's most successful business people Lois Quam sits down with Stephen Smith for a conversation as part of MPR News' Bright 11/12	BUSINESS	Ideas program.	Lois Quam Midday probes the perceptions and realities of media bias with a longtime broadcaster and media ethics specialist at the Poynter Institute, and MPR's 11/15	MEDIA	commentary editor.	Al Tompkins, Eric Ringham
		An "Intelligence Squared" debate features two panelists for, and two panelists against, the proposition: Big Government is Stifling the	Phil Gramm, Arthur Laffer, 11/15	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	American Spirit.	Nouriel Roubini, Laura Tyson Three quarters of a million Minnesotans are on Medicare, and they have big decisions to make, starting this week. Experts answer questions on NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV /	Midday about Medicare, supplemental policies, the 11/16	HEALTH	alphabet soup programs, etc.	Kelli Jo Greiner, Linda Walker Nine years in, what have we accomplished in Afghanistan? Has the surge failed, or does it need time to take its course? An "Intelligence Squared" debate features two panelists for, and two panelists against, the proposition: Afghanistan is a lost	Peter Bergen, Max Boot, Nir
11/16	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	cause.	Rosen, Matthew Hoh
		What will the lame-duck Congress do in the next few weeks, and how will things be different in 2011 with GOP control of the U.S. House? What influence will Minnesota's delegation have on policy and procedures?	Norman Ornstein

		An "Intallingance Consend" debate feetungs there An "Intelligence Squared" debate features three panelists for, and three panelists against, the	Michael Hayden, Marc proposition: Treat terrorists like enemy combatants,	Thiessen, David Frakt, 11/17	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	not criminals.	Stephen Jones
		The longtime director of the Minnesota Historical Society departs at year's end. She joins Midday to talk about why history is important, the role of museums, and how best to convey the story of 11/18	HISTORY	Minnesota's people and places.	Nina Archabal David Eisenhower speaks at the Westminster Town Hall Forum about his new book, "Going Home to Glory: A Memoir of Life with Dwight D.
11/18	HISTORY	Eisenhower 1961-1969.	David Eisenhower Retiring WCCO-TV reporter and news anchor Don Shelby talks about the state of journalism today, 11/19	MEDIA	broadcast news, and his career.	Don Shelby
		New York Times national political correspondent speaks at the University of Wisconsin-River Falls about the meaning of the 2010 elections for President Obama, the new Congress and the 11/19	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	American people.	Jeff Zeleny
11/19	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	Two Minnesota elementary school teachers	Jen Zeleny received the prestigious Milken Award. They join 4.4/00		Midday to talk about what makes an effective teacher.	Carolyn Ruhnow, Jennifer
11/22	EDUCATION		Mitchell Recent Supreme Court decisions have made judicial elections more expensive and potentially more partisan and controversial. A panel of experts	Eric Magnuson, Greg Wersal,
	STATE POLITICS /	discusses how Minnesota should maintain an	Gary Borgendale, Sarah
11/22	GOVERNMENT	impartial judiciary.	Walker, Larry Jacobs
		One of the nation's pre-eminent experts on election law joins Midday on the day the Minnesota STATE POLITICS /	Canvassing Board meets to certify the results of the 11/23	GOVERNMENT	election for Governor.	Edward B. "Ned" Foley Vikings: greatest collapse in 50 year history?
		Reporter, author and columnist Jim Klobuchar joins Midday to discuss the future of the Vikings 11/23	SPORTS	football team.	Jim Klobuchar
		Eric Kaler will be the University of Minnesota President in July 2011. He joins Midday to answer questions about University priorities, funding, 11/24	EDUCATION	tuition, academics, sports and more.	Eric Kaler

Garrison Keillor, Vice President Walter Mondale
Connie Skillingstad
Patricia Hampl, Dan Chouinard
Mark Ritchie
Mark Ritchie
Mark Ritchie
Mark Ritchie
Mark Ritchie Steven Chu Steven Chu  Barbara Bodine
Steven Chu  Barbara Bodine  Michael Chertoff, Asra Nomani, Steven Chu  Barbara Bodine  Michael Chertoff, Asra Nomani, Debra Burlingame, Robert
Steven Chu  Barbara Bodine  Michael Chertoff, Asra Nomani,
Steven Chu  Barbara Bodine  Michael Chertoff, Asra Nomani, Debra Burlingame, Robert Baer, Hassan Abbas, Deroy
Steven Chu  Barbara Bodine  Michael Chertoff, Asra Nomani, Debra Burlingame, Robert Baer, Hassan Abbas, Deroy
Steven Chu  Barbara Bodine  Michael Chertoff, Asra Nomani, Debra Burlingame, Robert Baer, Hassan Abbas, Deroy

		The Jewish festival if Hanukkah begins Wednesday night at sundown. On this perennial National Public Radio favorite, Hanukkah stories and memoirs written by acclaimed authors are read by NPR's Susan Stamberg and Murray Horwitz.
		Hanukkah Lights celebrates its 20th anniversary this year, with four brand new works: "Finding Golda" by Margot Singer, "Legacy" by Lev CULTURE / RELIGION /	Raphael," "Geek Week" by Rebecca O'Connell,	Susan Stamberg, Murray
12/1	HISTORY	and "Moon Landing," by Shira Nayman	Horwitz House Speaker Margaret Anderson Kelliher and Rep. Paul Kohls offer perspective on what the new legislature and new governor will face. Both ran for STATE POLITICS /	governor and neither sought re-election to the	Margaret Anderson Kelliher,
12/2	GOVERNMENT	legislature.	Paul Kohls
, _	33 VERRINDERT	World Bank President Robert Zoellick speaks at	T dai Nomo the Hubert H. Humphrey Institute about the role of the World Bank and how its policies are working to 12/2	INTERNATIONAL / BUSINESS / ECONIMICS	stabilize an interconnected world economy.	Robert Zoellick
12/2	EGGINIMIGG	Incoming Senate GOP Majority Leader Amy Koch	Nobelt Zoelliok and incoming House DFL Minority Leader Paul Thissen suggest ways to address the looming
12/3	STATE POLITICS / GOVERNMENT	budget gap	Amy Koob Doul Thisson
12/3	GOVERNIVIENT	A special broadcast of Kevin Kling's play,	Amy Koch, Paul Thissen
		"Scarecrow on Fire." Based on the classic tale "The 40/0		Wizard of Oz," the play picks up where that story left off.	IZ - 1 - IZP
12/3	CULTURE / ARTS	leit oii.	Kevin Kling
	STATE POLITICS /	Outgoing Education Commissioner Alice Seagren
12/6	GOVERNMENT / EDUCATION	joins Midday to talk about challenges in education.	Alice Seagren
12/0	COVERNIVIENT / EDOCATION	Stephen Smith discusses the work done by the	7 ilioo Coagron American Refugee Committee with his guest, ARC's president, Daniel Wordsworth. In Liberia, the organization provides microfinancing to get 12/6	INTERNATIONAL / BUSINESS /	small businesses off the ground.	Daniel Wordowerth
12/6	ECONIMICS	sman businesses on the ground.	Daniel Wordsworth

T
		"War Stories" author Al Zdon is out with a sequel to his 2003 collection. "War Stories Volume 2: Further Accounts of Minnesotans Who Defended Their Nation" tells the story of another 35 Minnesotans who served the nation from the Civil War to the Persian Gulf. Like the first "War Stories," this second volume is filled with sober, sad, often stirring stories of Minnesota men and women who did their part and a whole lot more.
		Proceeds from this second volume will be used to benefit the American Legion, specifically, the 12/7	HISTORY	Legion's many youth programs	Al Zdon Ten years ago suicide bombers blasted a hole in the side of the USS Cole while it sat in a harbor in Yemen. Seventeen American sailors were killed in the terrorist attack, and dozens more injured. Many of the crew members on the Cole that day remember the attack in vivid detail. A new documentary from America Abroad, "Remembering the Cole," looks back at what 12/7	HISTORY	happened and how America responded Mark Dayton is expected to be Governor-elect Mark Dayton very shortly. Political scientist Kathryn Pearson joins Gary Eichten to discuss the conclusion to the 2010 election and how the new STATE POLITICS /	Governor will work with a new Republican-
12/8	GOVERNMENT	controlled House and Senate.	Kathryn Pearson Thirty years ago today, singer, songwriter, artist John Lennon was shot and killed outside his apartment in New York City. The news sent shockwaves around the world. Midday looks back on Lennon's life and legacy with a documentary, 12/8	ARTS / CULTURE / HISTORY	"The Day John Lennon Died." Chris Farrell analyzes the impact of extending the NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV /	Bush-era tax cuts, a payroll tax cut, tax credits, and 12/9	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	unemployment benefits.	Chris Farrell Journalist and political analyst Richard Wolffe speaks at the Commonwealth Club about his new book, Revival: The Struggle for Survival Inside the 12/9	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	Obama White House	Richard Wolffe, Phil Bronstein

		winter begins?	1
		Snow, cold and wind: what's in store when the real Huttner is ready to answer questions about it now.
		Winter doesn't begin for another a week, but Paul 12/14	GOVERNMENT	Minnesota's Elephant Club on December 13, 2010.	Chip Cravaack STATE POLITICS /	district, spoke to the Republican Party of will represent Minnesota's 8th congressional U.S. Repelect Chip Cravaack, a Republican who 12/14	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	Congress.	Keith Ellison the tax bill and other issues facing the lame-duck Midday on his way back to Washington to vote on Minnesota Congressman Keith Ellison joins 12/13	INTERNATIONAL / HISTORY	science, economics, and politics to the world	Ian Frazier war, and a chronicle of Siberia's contributions to fascinating look at Russia since the end of the cold of times over the past decade. His book is a the New Yorker and has visited Siberia a number downtown Minneapolis. Ian Frazier is a writer for series at the Hennepin County Library in "Travels in Siberia" for the Talk of the Stacks Ian Frazier shares travel stories from his new book, 12/13	ECONOMICS	Committee in Paris	J. Brian Atwood
	INTERNATIONAL /	Development's (OECD) Development Assistance Organization for Economic Cooperation and today. In January, Atwood becomes chair of the discuss all the biggest issues facing the world Department and US AID. He joins Midday to to Minnesota from a long career at the State 12,10	00 ( I. (( ( ( ( ( ( ( ( ( ( ( ( ( ( ( ( (	The dean of the U of M Humphrey Institute came 12/10	GOVERNMENT	Enterprise Institute.	David Brooks, Paul Ryan Enterprise Debates series from the American government. The program is part of the American Wisconsin's 1st District on the proper role of Republican congressman Paul Ryan from 12/10	GOVERNIVIENT / EDUCATION	New York Times columnist David Brooks debates	Todd Oils, Dualle Delisoil
12/10	STATE POLITICS / GOVERNMENT / EDUCATION	would pay for it?	Todd Otis, Duane Benson
	OTATE DO: :-: /	What can be done, what would it cost, and who DFL governor and new Republican Legislature. children and say this must be a priority for the new Two influential Minnesota organizations say Minnesota must do more to educate the youngest

		THE TABLE 1 AND 1 TO THE 1 AT THE COLUMN ASSETS.
		The Vikings play Monday at TCF Field on the U of M campus, as the collapsed Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome can't be repaired in time. What is the future of the Metrodome and where will college 12/15	SPORTS	and pro football be played in the future?	Bill Lester Donald Berwick, administrator of the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services, speaks to the Commonwealth Club of California about the financial condition of both entities, and the future of health care services for children, older NATIONAL POLITICS /	Americans and the poor. These programs provide 12/15	HEALTH	care to nearly one in three Americans.	Donald Berwick
		One third of the Somalis living in the United States
	STATE POLITICS / SOCIAL	live in Minnesota. Hear a series of MPR special
12/16	ISSUES	reports by Laura Yuen on their lives here.	Laura Yuen
		The White House review says NATO-led forces are making headway against the insurgency, but serious challenges remain. The report also says the US is on track to begin drawing down its troops and putting Afghan forces in the lead in 2011, but	Barack Obama, Robert Gates, INTERNATIONAL / NATIONAL	there are many barriers to progress in rebuilding	Hilary Clinton, General James
12/16	POLITICS / GOV	Afghanistan.	Cartwright
		The latest census data shine a light on Minnesota's racial, economic, housing, and transportation circumstances. How has Minnesota changed in the 12/17	STATE POLITICS / GOV	last decade, and what has stayed the same?	Tom Gillaspy The BBC's "World Have Your Say" meets with members of "Anonymous," the secretive hacking group that briefly brought down the MasterCard, Visa, and PayPal websites for suspending financial services to Wiki-leaks. Members of "Anonymous" INTERNATIONAL / NATIONAL	will answer listener questions about what they are 12/17	POLITICS / GOV	trying to achieve.	"Anonymous" Congressional expert Steven Smith joins Midday to discuss the action on the tax bill, Don't Ask Don't Tell, The Dream Act and the START treatyand look ahead to the new Congress with Republican 12/20	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	control of the House.	Steven Smith

		Noah Feldman, author and Harvard Law School
		professor, says four of the most important Supreme Court justices ever were appointed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt, at a moment of crisis in the U.S. Feldman spoke at the 2010 Aspen Ideas Festival about those justices, and what their vision means for the Supreme Court today. His forthcoming book is called, "Scorpions: The Battles and Triumphs of FDR's Great Supreme 12/20	NATIONAL GOV / HISTORY	Court Justices."12:00 p.m.	Noah Feldman MPR's medical analyst Dr. Jon Hallberg presents his list of the most interesting health care 12/21	HEALTH / SCIENCE	developments in 2010 and looks ahead to 2011.	Dr. Jon Hallberg
		An "Intelligence Squared" debate features two	  panelists for, and two panelists against, the	Zeba Khan, Maajid Nawaz, Ayaan Hirsi Ali, Douglas 12/21	RELIGION / SOCIAL ISSUES	proposition: Islam is a religion of peace.	Murray 12/21	TELIGIOIT, GOGIAL IGGGLG	Minnesota Congressman Tim Walz (D-1st district)	a. attended the signing ceremony and joins Midday to discuss gays serving openly in the military, as well MATIONAL POLITICO / COV /	as the previous integration of blacks and women in 12/22	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV / SOCIAL ISSUES	the military.	Barack Obama, Tim Walz
12/22	SOCIAL ISSUES	Longtime technology journalist David Kirkpatrick,	Barack Obama, Tim Waiz
		author of "The Facebook Effect: The Inside Story of the Company That Is Connecting the World,"
		± *
		spoke at the 2010 Aspen Ideas Festival about how 40/00	TECHNOLOGY / SOCIAL	Facebook got its start, and how it's changing the world.	Devid Kidos striels
12/22	ISSUES		David Kirkpatrick A landmark health care overhaul was signed into 40/00	POLITICS / GOVERNMENT /	law in March 2010; many opponents of that	55
12/23	HEALTH	measure vow that 2011 will mark its dismantling.	David Durenberger Minnesota's award-winning children's author Kate DiCamillo talks about why she writes and how she does it and takes questions from kids at a recent Club Book event in Apple Valley. DiCamillo is the author of the wildly popular "Because of Winn-Dixie" and "The Tale of Despereaux." Club Book is a Twin Cities-area program that brings popular authors to communities around the metro area. It is EDUCATION / CULTURE /	coordinated by the Library Foundation of Hennepin
12/23	ARTS	County.	Kate DiCamillo University of Minnesota Meteorologist and Climatologist Mark Seeley joins Midday for a look back at 2010 weather and Christmas weather of 12/24	ENVIRONMENT / SCIENCE	years past.	Mark Seeley

		Minnesota Public Radio's Movie Maven Stephanie Curtis joins Midday for a look at the best and 12/24	CHITIDE / ADTO	worst Christmas movies.	Stanbania Curtia
12/24	CULTURE / ARTS	The year 2010 brought Republican electoral gains,	Stephanie Curtis in Minnesota and across the country, as well as ,	another recount in a statewide election. Midday's
12/27	NATIONAL / STATE POLITICS	political analysts look ahead to politics in 2011.	Todd Rapp, Maureen Shaver
		At the 2010 Aspen Ideas Festival, New York Times
		columnist David Brooks discussed what scientists are learning about the human mind - and what that 12/27	SCIENCE / POLITICS	means for both our lives and our public policy.	David Brooks 2010 was a year when the news business became the news. WikiLeaks may have changed journalism forever by revealing formerly secret diplomatic documents. And NPR's firing of a news analyst kept pundits talking for months. Midday looks back 12/28	POLITICS / BUSINESS / MEDIA	with the U of M's Jane Kirtley.	Jane Kirtley Judge Gordon A. Martin discusses his new book
		"Count Them One by One: Black Mississippians Fighting for the Right to Vote," about the 1962 court case that resulted in one of the first victories for voting rights in the South. Judge Martin will be joined by Minneapolis-born John Doar, who worked for the Justice Department under Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy and successfully tried 12/28	POLITICS / GOVERNMENT	the case.	Gordon A. Martin, John Doar
		No. 11 C. Fill
	NATIONAL POLITICS /	Minnesota's senior senator joins Gary Eichten in 12/29	GOVERNMENT	studio to answer Midday listeners' questions.	Amy Klobuchar Teachers matter. A lot. Studies show that students with the best teachers learn three times as much as students with the worst teachers. Politicians and education reformers are calling for big changes in	American RadioWorks how teachers are trained and evaluated - and in the	documentary, "Testing 12/29	EDUCATION	way teachers are hired and fired too.	Teachers."
		Tammy Schultz of the US Marine Corps War College and Georgetown University assesses the INTERNATIONAL / NATIONAL	strategies, leadership, casualties, and prospects for 12/30	POLITICS / GOV	the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq.	Tammy Schultz Garrison Keillor performed in December at the John F. Kennedy Library in Boston. Hear his 12/30	CULTURE / ARTS	stories on Midday.	Garrison Keillor
		In a longstanding Midday tradition, Chris Farrell responds to his economic predictions from last 12/31	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	year, and looks into his crystal ball for 2011.	Chris Farrell

		Another year-end Midday tradition is a recap of the most interesting sports stories of the year. MPR
12/31	SPORTS	sports analyst Howard Sinker stops by to talk about the most exciting and the most disappointing Minnesota sports stories in 2010.	Howard Sinker

CATEGORIES:

Business/Economics

Culture/Arts

Education

Environment

Health/Science

History

International Politics/Government

Media

National Politics/Gov

Religion

Social Issues

Sports

State Politics/Gov

	2010
Date	Key 1	Synopsis	Guest/Reporter
2410	y .	Today Lorie Skjerven Gildea is the new Chief	- Cuccumoponio Justice of the Minnesota Supreme Court. She answers MPR questions about the courts and the 7/01	STATE POLITICS / GOV	judicial system on Midday.	Lorie Skjerven Gildea
		Minnesota's award-winning childrens author Kate	,
		DiCamillo talks about why she writes and how she
		does it and takes questions from kids at a recent Club Book event in Apple Valley. DiCamillo is the author of the wildly popular "Because of Winn-7/01	CULTURE/ARTS	Dixie" and "The Tale of Despereaux."	Kate DiCamillo Test data released this week shows little progress in math and reading, and a large ongoing achievement 7/02	EDUCATION	gap between students of different races.	Alice Seagren
		The idea that all Americans have a right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" is perhaps the most significant legacy of the Declaration of Independence. During the 2009 Aspen Ideas Festival, David Rubenstein told the story of the NATIONAL	Declaration of Independence how it was written 7/02	POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	and how the ideas in it are central to American life.	n/a Yesterday marked the 234 th birthday of the United States, and American Revolution historian Pauline Maier joins Midday to discuss the Declaration of NATIONAL	Independence, the Revolutionary War, and the 7/05	POLITICS/GOVERNMENT	drafting of the U.S Constitution.11:00 a.m.	Pauline Maier
		Ask the Vet. Dr. Vete As Hunter and her dee
7/05	OUII /ADTO	Ask the Vet: Dr. Kate An Hunter and her dog,	Da Kata An Humton
7/05	CUL/ARTS	Ansel, join Midday answer questions about pets.	Dr. Kate An Hunter
		Louis Johnston and Chris Farrell explore the current and future condition of the U.S. economy	Louis Johnston / Chris
7/00	DUDINESS / FOONOMISS	and answer questions from listeners.11:00 a.m.	Farrell
7/06	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	and answer questions from fisteners.11.00 a.m.	Ayaan Hiri Ali, Jeffrey Rosen, Kim Bottomly, David Leonhardt, Vivian Schiller,
		Eleven participants in the 2010 Aspen Ideas	James Fallows, Buddy
		Festival present their "big idea" to the assembled	Fletcher, Fred Swaniker,
7/06	SOCIAL ISSUES	crowd.	Regina Benjamin, James Bennet
.,55	200	Congressional expert Stephen Smith takes note of Senator Al Franken's first year in office, and discusses what Congress is likely to accomplish 7/07	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	after the Independence Day recess ends Monday.	Stephen Smith

		Will the financial crisis spell America's decline?
		Niall Ferguson, Mort Zuckerman and Tom Friedman discuss the impact of the financial crisis on America's future, at the 2010 Aspen Ideas	Niall Ferguson, Mort
7/07	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	Festival.	Zuckerman, Tom Friedman
7/07	BOSINESS / ECONOMICS	Minneapolis Mayor R.T. Rybak assesses the	Zuckerman, Tom Priedman conditions in the city, including crime, city services and the environment as well as the city's pitch to 7/00	OTATE DOLUTION / OOV	host the 2012 Democratic National Convention.	D. T. Dybak
7/08	STATE POLITICS / GOV	Every day 70 million tweets are sent. Two of the	R. T. Rybak co-founders of Twitter explain how this company,
7/00	000141 1001150	and this phenomenon, came to be and where it is headed.	Dia Ctono / Even Milliamo
7/08	SOCIAL ISSUES		Biz Stone / Evan Williams
		The iPhone 4 was supposed to be faster and more reliable than the previous generations of attention-grabbing mobile device. Glitches continue, the latest affecting the rates of data upload. MPR tech 7/00	D. 1011 - 201 / T- 211	expert Jon Gordon parses the good and the bad	lan Candan
7/09	Business/Tech	with the new smartphones.	Jon Gordon From the Aspen Ideas Festival: Microsoft Chair Bill Gates talks about his ideas for health care. The Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation has given money to combat malaria and improve health care in countries around the world. Also Geoffrey 7/00	HEALTH / SCIENCE	Canada on his vision of improving education for	Dill Cotoo / Cooffron Conodo
7/09	EDUCATION	children who attend the worst performing schools.  MPR political commentators offer their insights	Bill Gates / Geoffrey Canada into the final four weeks of the primary election
7/40	OTATE DOLUTION / OOV	1	Mayrean Cabayar / Tadd Dann
7/12	STATE POLITICS / GOV	campaign for a new Minnesota Governor.	Maureen Schaver / Todd Rapp
		From the Aspen Ideas Festival: Outgoing director of the Office of Management and Budget Peter Orszag discusses the economy and where it's headed. Orszag spoke at the 2010 Aspen Ideas Festival. He will leave his position at the OMB at 7/10	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	the end of July.	Poter Orezea
		, 8
7/12	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	5th District DFL Congressman Keith Ellison	Peter Orszag explains the financial reform bill and other key issues facing congress. He also discusses how the Congress functions, and the sagging popularity of 7/10	NATIONAL DOLLTIOS / COV	congressional Democrats and President Obama.	Keith Ellison
7/13	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	The All-Star break marks the halfway point of the	Veitti Ellistii major league baseball season, and Star Tribune online sports coordinator Howard Sinker joins Midday to discuss how the Minnesota Twins are 7/10	CDODIC	faring.	Howard Sinker
7/13	SPORTS	Taring.	Howard Sinker

		A global agalogy avnort avalains what is hannaning
		A global ecology expert explains what is happening 7/4.4		with the latest ecological disaster and what lessons
7/14	HEALTH / SCIENCE	can be learned from it.	Jonathan Foley From the Aspen Ideas Festival: Three political analysts discuss the tea party how it compares to other populist movements, why it's attracted such a devoted following, and what impact it might have	Fred Barnes, Morris Fiorina, on U.S. politics. The analysts spoke at the 2010	E.J. Dionne Jr., Jeffrey
7/14	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	Aspen Ideas Festival in Aspen, Colorado.	Goldberg
		During a particularly violent week in the war, Gen.
		David Petraeus overcame objections from Afghan President Hamid Karzai to establish local defense forces in hopes of thwarting attacks by Taliban INTERNATIONAL POLITICS /	insurgents in Afghanistan. Eight US service
7/15	GOVERNMENT	members were killed this week in the America's	Jonathan Landay Greg Mortenson, co-founder and executive director of the Central Asia Institute and author of "Three Cups of Tea," has devoted his life to building schools in Afghanistan and Pakistan. At the 2010 Aspen Ideas Festival, Mortenson discusses whether INTERNATIONAL POLITICS /	his ideas about promoting peace can affect U.S.
7/15	GOVERNMENT	military policy in Afghanistan.	Greg Mortenson
.,,,,		New Hampshire and Iowa political scientists assess Governor Pawlenty's recent and upcoming trips to NATIONAL & STATE POLITICS	their states, and tell the stories and strategies of	Dennis Goldford / Dean
7/16	/ GOV	lesser-known presidential candidates' efforts.	Spiliotes
		At the 2010 Aspen Ideas Festival, New York Times
		columnist David Brooks discussed what scientists
		are learning about the human mind - and what that 7/16	HEALTH / SCIENCE	means for both our lives and our public policy.	David Brooks
.,	HEALINY OGIENGE	The Minneapolis Fed's most visible personality	Bavia Brooke ends his 25 year career this month. Art Rolnick joins Midday to share his wisdom about the state, BUSINESS / ECONOMICS /	national economy and his ideas about investing in
7/19	EDUCATION	education.	Art Rolnick
7,10	EDUCATION	A panel at the 2010 Aspen Ideas Festival considers	, at tonion how the recession is affecting the middle class - DUDINEOS ESONICA (CO.	and whether America still offers the possibility of	Arianna Huffington, Edward
7/19	BUSINESS ECONOMICS / SOCIAL ISSUES	upward mobility.	Reilly, Ellis Cose, Thomas Wilson, Ronald Brownstein
1/19	OCOIAL IOCOLO	At this spring's international nuclear summit,	Wilder, Renaid Drownstell President Obama said the risk of nuclear attack has gone up. What is the status of nuclear weapons in the existing nuclear countries, and where are 7/20	INTERNATIONAL POLITICS /	nuclear weapons proliferating?	Matthew Bunn
1/20	GOVERNMENT	nuclear weapons promerating:	IVIAUITEW DUTIT

Widder, vviduei, ₋aurie

with Disabilities Act July 26, 1990. Midday discusses what led to its passage, what has been accomplished, and what remains to be accomplished.  The leak of 91,000 classified U.S. records on the Afghanistan war by Wikileaks.org is one of the largest unauthorized disclosures in military history. The documents include information about Afghan civilians killed by accident and U.S. officials' fury at alleged Pakistani intelligence cooperation with militants. The BBC's "World Have Your Say" considers the implications of this leak.  In "North Country: The Making of Minnesota," author Mary Wingerd describes the relationships between Indians and whites in the 200 years before statehood and the early years of statehood.  U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			Desident Conser H.W. Desident des American discusses what led to its passage, what has been accomplished, and what remains to be accomplished.  The leak of 91,000 classified U.S. records on the Afghanistan war by Wikileaks.org is one of the largest unauthorized disclosures in military history. The documents include information about Afghan civilians killed by accident and U.S. officials' fury at alleged Pakistani intelligence cooperation with militants. The BBC's "World Have Your Say" considers the implications of this leak.  In "North Country: The Making of Minnesota," author Mary Wingerd describes the relationships between Indians and whites in the 200 years before statehood and the early years of statehood.  U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Mark Haveman  Vali Nasr, Tranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			President George H.W. Bush signed the Americans accomplished, and what remains to be accomplished.    The leak of 91,000 classified U.S. records on the Afghanistan war by Wikileaks.org is one of the largest unauthorized disclosures in military history. The documents include information about Afghan civilians killed by accident and U.S. officials fury at alleged Pakistani intelligence cooperation with militants. The BBC's "World Have Your Say" considers the implications of this leak.    In "North Country: The Making of Minnesota," author Mary Wingerd describes the relationships between Indians and whites in the 200 years before statehood and the early years of statehood.    V.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.   Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.   Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.    National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars 7/26 ISSUES accomplished.  The leak of 91,000 classified U.S. records on the Afghanistan war by Wikileaks.org is one of the largest unauthorized disclosures in military history. The documents include information about Afghan civilians killed by accident and U.S. officials' fury at alleged Pakistani intelligence cooperation with militants. The BBC's "World Have Your Say" considers the implications of this leak.  In "North Country: The Making of Minnesota," author Mary Wingerd describes the relationships between Indians and whites in the 200 years before statehood and the early years of statehood.  7/27 SOCIAL ISSUES  SOCIAL ISSUES  U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sale taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars
The leak of 91,000 classified U.S. records on the Afghanistan war by Wikileaks.org is one of the largest unauthorized disclosures in military history. The documents include information about Afghan civilians killed by accident and U.S. officials' fury at alleged Pakistani intelligence cooperation with militants. The BBC's "World Have Your Say" considers the implications of this leak.  In "North Country: The Making of Minnesota," author Mary Wingerd describes the relationships between Indians and whites in the 200 years before statehood and the early years of statehood.  U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars
Afghanistan war by Wikileaks.org is one of the largest unauthorized disclosures in military history. The documents include information about Afghan civilians killed by accident and U.S. officials' fury at alleged Pakistani intelligence cooperation with militants. The BBC's "World Have Your Say" considers the implications of this leak.  7/26  In "North Country: The Making of Minnesota," author Mary Wingerd describes the relationships between Indians and whites in the 200 years before statehood and the early years of statehood.  U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars	7/26	ISSUES		John Tschida / Bud Rosenfield largest unauthorized disclosures in military history. The documents include information about Afghan civilians killed by accident and U.S. officials' fury at alleged Pakistani intelligence cooperation with militants. The BBC's "World Have Your Say" considers the implications of this leak.  In "North Country: The Making of Minnesota," author Mary Wingerd describes the relationships between Indians and whites in the 200 years before statehood and the early years of statehood.  U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars
The documents include information about Afghan civilians killed by accident and U.S. officials' fury at alleged Pakistani intelligence cooperation with militants. The BBC's "World Have Your Say" considers the implications of this leak.    In "North Country: The Making of Minnesota," author Mary Wingerd describes the relationships between Indians and whites in the 200 years before statehood and the early years of statehood.    U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.    Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.    Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.    National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			1 civilians killed by accident and U.S. officials fury at alleged Pakistani intelligence cooperation with militants. The BBC's "World Have Your Say" considers the implications of this leak.  7/26 In "North Country: The Making of Minnesota," author Mary Wingerd describes the relationships between Indians and whites in the 200 years before statehood and the early years of statehood.  7/27 SOCIAL ISSUES  U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  7/28 STATE POLITICS / GOV  NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV  Vali Nasr, Tranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars at alleged Pakistani intelligence cooperation with militants. The BBC's "World Have Your Say" considers the implications of this leak.  In "North Country: The Making of Minnesota," author Mary Wingerd describes the relationships between Indians and whites in the 200 years before statehood and the early years of statehood.  U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars International Politics   Government   Mainternations of this leak.   From the BBC			1 Considers the implications of this leak.   From the BBC
In "North Country: The Making of Minnesota," author Mary Wingerd describes the relationships between Indians and whites in the 200 years before statehood and the early years of statehood.  U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars		INTERNATIONAL POLITICS /	militants. The BBC's "World Have Your Say" author Mary Wingerd describes the relationships between Indians and whites in the 200 years before statehood and the early years of statehood.  U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars	7/26	GOVERNMENT	•	From the BBC between Indians and whites in the 200 years before statehood and the early years of statehood.  U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			1
SOCIAL ISSUES   Statehood and the early years of statehood.   Mary Lethert Wingerd			author Mary Wingerd describes the relationships
U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			between Indians and whites in the 200 years before discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars	7/27	SOCIAL ISSUES	statehood and the early years of statehood.	Mary Lethert Wingerd speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, D.C.  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			U.S. Secretary of Education Arne Duncan
7/27 NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV Washington, D.C.  Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			discusses the outlook for education reform. Duncan
Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			speaks live at a National Press Club luncheon in Taxpayers Association answers questions on Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  Vali Nasr  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars	7/27	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	Washington, D.C.	Arne Duncan
Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  Vali Nasr  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			Mark Haveman of the nonpartisan Minnesota taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  Vali Nasr  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			Taxpayers Association answers questions on
7/28 STATE POLITICS / GOV be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.  Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  7/28 National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			Midday about income taxes, sales taxes, business
Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  Vali Nasr  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			taxes, and property taxes, all of which promise to advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars	7/28	STATE POLITICS / GOV	be key issues in the 2010 gubernatorial campaign.	Mark Haveman Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			Vali Nasr, Iranian-American scholar and senior of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at this summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			advisor to the U.S. Special Representative for T/28 This summer's Chautauqua lecture series in western New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			Afghanistan and Pakistan, speaks about the future
7/28 GOVERNMENT New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			of the Muslim world. Nasr was a featured guest at
7/28 GOVERNMENT New York.  National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars		INTERNATIONAL POLITICS /	1
says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars	7/28		 	Vali Nasr
says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings system with tougher requirements. Toyota announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			National Highway Traffic Safety Administration
announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			says it will test 2011 cars under a new ratings
announces a recall of another half million cars, on top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars			system with tougher requirements. Toyota top of the 8.5 million recalled earlier. Which cars
			·
1/29   BUSINESS / ECONOMICS   ATC SATEST ATIC DEST:   JACK GIIIIS	7/29	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	are safest and best?	Jack Gillis

T			Г
		A federal judge blocked some of the most controversial parts of Arizona's tough new immigration law hours before it was set to take effect. Midday features special coverage from our sister station KPCC, which is broadcasting live from Phoenix, talking with law enforcement, protesters, activists and legislators on both side of	Included varied guest
7/29	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	the immigration debate.	interviews
		The Gear Junkie, Stephen Regenold, joins Midday to talk about his latest global adventures, outdoor expeditions, conditioning, equipment and clothing 7/30	SPORTS	for outdoor activities.	Stephen Regenold Much of the economic conversation in Washington right now revolves around one word: Debt. The federal debt, now at around $13 trillion, is ballooning. Experts at the 2010 Aspen Ideas Festival consider what that means for the U.S., and 7/30	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	what the country needs to do about it.	David Walker DFL-endorsed Gubernatorial candidate Margaret Anderson Kelliher answers questions about the major issues facing the state. The August 10 primary will decide the DFL candidate to appear on 8/02	STATE POLITICS / GOV	the ballot November 2, 2010.	Margaret Anderson-Kelliher David Gergen, senior political analyst for CNN and director of the Center for Public Leadership at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government, says it's going to take sacrifice to solve the biggest problems facing our nation.
		Gergen spoke at the Commonwealth Club of 8/02	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	California.	David Gergen DFL Gubernatorial candidate Matt Entenza answers questions about the major issues facing the state. The DFL nominee will be decided in the 8/03	STATE POLITICS / GOV	August 10 primary election, a week from today.	Matt Entenza A panel of influential media experts discuss how social media sites like Facebook and Twitter are	Arianna Huffington, David changing journalism and the news industry.	Kirkpatrick, Vivian Schiller, 8/03	SOCIAL ISSUES	Recorded at the Aspen Ideas Festival.	Strauss Zelnick Economists are concerned that personal income isn't rising, unemployment may go higher, consumer spending is lagging, deflation is a possibility, and there may be a double-dip recession. U of M economist V.V. Chari looks into 8/04	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	his crystal ball.	Varadarajan V. Chari

1		N 1 E 11	T
		Noah Feldman, author and Harvard Law School
		professor, says four of the most important Supreme Court justices ever were appointed by President
		Franklin D. Roosevelt, at a moment of crisis in the U.S. Feldman spoke at the 2010 Aspen Ideas
		Festival about those justices, and what their vision
		means for the Supreme Court today. His
		forthcoming book is called, "Scorpions: The
		Battles and Triumphs of FDR's Great Supreme
8/04	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	Court Justices."	Noah Feldman DFL Gubernatorial candidate Mark Dayton answers questions about the major issues facing the state of Minnesota, as part of MPR's "Meet the 8/05	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	Candidates" series.	Mark Dayton
0,00	NATIONAL FOLITION COV	In advance of next Tuesday's primary elections, six	Mark Bayton candidates for governor in Minnesota debated a wide range of issues facing rural communities.	Margaret Anderson-Kelliher, They shared the stage at Farmfest, near Redwood	Matt Entenza, Rob Hahn, Tom 0/05	NATIONAL POLITICS / COV	Falls.	Horner, Tom Emmer, Mark
8/05	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	Retired Ambassador Ryan Crocker shares lessons	Dayton, Tom Rothman
		•
0/00	INTERNATIONAL POLITICS /	learned in Iraq, Pakistan, Syria, Kuwait and 8/06	GOV	Lebanon.	Amb. Ryan Crocker
		The controversial author of the best-seller "Infidel" and her newest book, "Nomad: From Islam to America: A Personal Journey Through the Clash of Civilizations" speaks at Aspen about women in the 8/06	RELIGION	islamic world.	Ayaan Hirsi Ali With the primary elections less than 24 hours away, leading Independence Party gubernatorial candidates Tom Horner and Rob Hahn join Midday
8/09	STATE POLITICS / GOV	for a final debate.	Tom Horner, Rob Hahn The DFL candidates for governor laid out their plans for taxes, education, health care, and other major issues facing the state in their final pre-election debate. The debate, held at the Fitzgerald Theater in St. Paul, was sponsored by Minnesota	Margaret Anderson-Kelliher,
8/09	STATE POLITICS / GOV	Public Radio News.	Mark Dayton, Matt Entenza Elections expert Joe Mansky answers questions big and small about voter registration, primary election 8/10	STATE POLITICS / GOV	procedures, absentee balloting, and more.	Joe Mansky Longtime technology journalist David Kirkpatrick,
		author of "The Facebook Effect: The Inside Story
		of the Company That Is Connecting the World,"
		spoke at the 2010 Aspen Ideas Festival about how Facebook got its start, and how it's changing the 8/10	SOCIAL ISSUES	world.	David Kirkpatrick
			- reconsequences

0/40		performance standards. How much are kids
8/12	EDUCATION	learning, and whose fault is it if they don't? A panel of experts at the 2010 Aspen Ideas Festival	Alice Seagren, Charlie Kyte considers whether we are living in a time of	Amar Bhide, Craig Newmark, unprecedented innovation, and what kinds of	Andrew Thompson, Vijay
8/12	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	innovation we're likely to see in the future.	Vaitheeswaran Charles Peters takes his 50 years of Washington experience to shed new light on Lyndon B.
8/13	HISTORY	Johnson, the 36th President.	Charles Peters National Public Radio President and CEO Vivian Schiller speaks at the 2010 Aspen Ideas Festival
8/13	MEDIA	about news literacy, and how to tell fact from fiction in a world of information.	Vivian Schiller
0/13	MEDIA	Tomorrow marks the 65th anniversary of Japan's	vivian schiller surrender and the end of World War II. To commemorate, Midday is playing "50 Years After 14 August", a radio drama written by Norman Corwin and produced by NPR in 1995 to mark the 8/13	HISTORY	50th anniversary of the war's end.	n/a Political scientist Dan Hofrenning analyzes the key 8/16	STATE POLITICS / GOV	issues in the Minnesota campaign for Governor.	Dan Hofrenning
0/10	STATE PULITICS / GUV	In 1961, Charlayne Hunter-Gault made civil rights	Dan Hofrenning history when she became the first African-American woman to enter the University of Georgia. Hunter-Gault, a foreign correspondent for National Public Radio, told her story at the 2010
8/16	HISTORY	Aspen Ideas Festival.	Charlayne Hunter -Gault 5, 10		Ramsey County's top crime fighter reflects on prosecutions and the judicial system, as she winds down her 16 year tenure as Ramsey County down her to year tenure as Ramsey County Environmentalist Bill McKibben, author of "The End of Nature" and "Eaarth: Making a Life on a 0/47	END (ID ON MENT	Tough New Planet," spoke at the 2010 Aspen Ideas Festival about climate change.	Dill Makibban

8/17	ENVIRONMENT	ĕ	Bill McKibben
		Jim Klobuchar talks about the return of Brett Favre and the Vikings chances for a Super Bowl victory.
		Klobuchar has written about the Vikings for 50
8/18	SPORTS	years and has authored numerous books.	Jim Klobuchar Gubernatorial candidates Tom Emmer (R), Mark Dayton (DFL) and Tom Horner (IP) debate the issues at Grandview Lodge in Nisswa. Hear the	Tom Emmer, Mark Dayton, 8/18	STATE POLITICS / GOV	entire debate on Midday.	Tom Horner An expert on the Taliban answers questions about how the Taliban ruled in Afghanistan for a decade INTERNATIONAL POLITICS /	before being toppled in 2001, and its resurgence in 8/19	GOVERNMENT	Afghanistan today.	Michael Sempel Millions of people have been left homeless by the worst floods in Pakistan's history. The United Nations has called an emergency meeting to try to INTERNATIONAL POLITICS /	increase aid to the region. The BBC's World Have 8/19	GOVERNMENT	Your Say has the latest news from the region.	From the BBC Forty-five years ago, the Beatles played their one and only concert in Minnesota. It was August 21, 1965, and the Fab Four performed before screaming fans at Metropolitan Stadium in 8/20	HISTORY	Bloomington.	Jon Bream, Jim McGuinn
		Five years after Hurricane Katrina and on the heels	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , of the BP oil spill, newly-elected New Orleans Mayor Mitch Landrieu speaks at the National Press
8/20	NATIONAL POLITICS/GOV	Club about the challenges facing his city.	Mitch Landrieu
5.25		Popular Minnesota Department of Natural Resources wildlife biologist Carrol Henderson joins Midday to discuss the effects of the Gulf oil spill on migrating birds and take all other bird 8/23	ENVIRONMENT	questions.	Carrol Henderson
0/23	LINVINOINIVIEINI	Three preeminent American writers gathered at the	Carroi i lenderson 2010 Aspen Ideas Festival to discuss how new 9/22	CHITHDE / ADTO	technology is changing the art of writing.	Tobias Wolff, Jane Hirshfield, John Guare, Dana Gioia
8/23	CULTURE / ARTS	DFL Sen. Tom Bakk, chair of the Senate Tax	John Guare, Dana Gloia
		·
		Committee, and Republican Sen. Julianne Ortman, 0/04		ranking minority member of that committee, join	Tan Ball I lie Or 8/24	STATE POLITICS / GOV	Midday to discuss state taxes	Tom Bakk, Julianne Ortman

8/31	EDUCATION	the start of the school year.	Damm, Ryan Vernosh questions from parents, students and teachers about	Regina Seabrook, Amber Three award-winning Minnesota teachers answer
8/30	STATE POLITICS / GOV	the 2010 election with fairgoers and MPR listeners.	Maureen Shaver, Todd Rapp Gary Eichten at MPR's State Fair booth to discuss Republican commentator Maureen Shaver join MPR's DFL political commentator Todd Rapp and 8/30	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	the latest political issues.	Sen. Amy Klobuchar MPR State Fair booth to answer questions about U.S. Sen. Amy Klobuchar joins Midday at the 8/27	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	dependence on foreign oil.	T. Boone Pickens
		Colorado to discuss how to wean America of its	Thomas Friedman, Ted Turner, Renewable Energy Day conference in Aspen, Friedman gather at the 7th annual American Ted Turner, T. Boone Pickens, and Thomas
8/27	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	options to fix the economy?	Ed Lotterman higher unemployment are looming. What are the and fears are growing that a second recession and The economy slowed sharply in the second quarter, 8/26	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	and more.	Sen. Al Franken economy, health care, taxes, war, foreign affairs Minnesota State Fair to answer questions about the U.S. Sen. Al Franken joins Midday at the 8/26	ENVIRONMENT	14th annual weather quiz.	Mark Seeley weather, and give listeners a chance to take the stage at the Minnesota State Fair to talk about the meteorologist Mark Seeley joins Gary Eichten on University of Minnesota climatologist and 8/25	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	Permanent War."	Andrew Bacevich book, "Washington Rules: America's Path to colonel Andrew Bacevich speaks about his new 0,20	THOTOKI	Boston University professor and retired U.S. Army	Cara Evano
8/25	HISTORY	movement compare to others before and since?	Sara Evans come about, and how does this civil rights vote was adopted August 26, 1920. How did this 0/24	STATE POLITICS / GOV	The 19th amendment giving women the right to	Tom Homei
8/24	STATE POLITICS / GOV	discussion on business issues that affect Minnesota.	Tom Emmer, Mark Dayton, Tom Horner gather at the University of St. Thomas for a panel	Tom Emmor Mark Dayton and Independence Party candidate Tom Horner Republican Tom Emmer, Democrat Mark Dayton,
		The three major party candidates for governor

		Playwright and humorist Kevin Kling, one of
		Minnesota's best-known storytellers, speaks at the Maplewood Library as part of the Club Book
		program. Along with several plays, Kling is the 0/04	0.11.71.75.	author of two collections of stories, "The Dog Says	Karda Klina
8/31	CULTURE / ARTS	How" and "Holiday Inn."	Kevin Kling
		At ceremonies marking the formal close of the US combat mission in Iraq, Gates said history will judge whether the 7 1/2 year war was worthwhile.
0/04	INTERNATIONAL POLITICS /	MIT international relations professor Stephen Van	Otania v Van Euro
9/01	GOVERNMENT	Evera joins Midday to look back and look ahead.	Stephen Van Evera Christina Romer, outgoing chair of the White House Council of Economic Advisers, speaks at 0/04		the National Press Club about the economic 9/01	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	challenges facing the country.	Christina Romer There's an increase in job openings in Minnesota
- 1		for the first time since 2007. What's the best way to 9/02	SOCIAL ISSUES	get one of those jobs?	Amy Lindgren
		U.S. Senator Amy Klobuchar remembers Eugene McCarthy, former senator and political icon from Minnesota. Klobuchar was the featured speaker at the fourth annual Eugene J. McCarthy Lecture at 9/02	HISTORY	St. John's University.	Sen. Amy Klobuchar
		The major party candidates for governor answer
- 1		questions from moderator Gary Eichten and the	Tom Emmer, Mark Dayton,
9/03	STATE POLITICS / GOV	Minnesota State Fair audience at Carousel Park.	Tom Horner Garrison Keillor, host of A Prairie Home Companion, is on the Carousel Park stage with Midday host Gary Eichten, answering questions
9/03	CULTURE / ARTS	from fairgoers and MPR listeners.	Garrison Keillor
		Minnesota Public Radio's Movie Maven Stephanie Curtis joins Midday live at the State Fair to talk 9/06	CULTURE / ARTS	movies	Stephanie Curtis MPR Sports analyst Howard Sinker makes his annual Labor Day appearance at the State Fair to talk about the Minnesota Twins' playoff run, the 9/06	SPORTS	upcoming Vikings season, and other sports topics.	Howard Sinker Outgoing Minnesota National Guard Adjutant General Larry Shellito joins Midday to discuss Minnesota soldiers deployed to the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan, and to reflect on his military career
9/07	STATE POLITICS / GOV	which ends next month.	Larry W. Shellito

		Gubernatorial candidates Tom Emmer (R), Mark Dayton (DFL) and Tom Horner (IP) gathered in Duluth to debate issues facing northern Minnesota. The event was sponsored by the Duluth News
		Tribune and the Duluth Area Chamber of	Tom Emmer, Mark Dayton,
9/07	STATE POLITICS / GOV	Commerce.	Tom Horner Congressional expert Steven Smith assesses the chances Congress will pass legislation on major issues before adjourning in October to run for re-election. Control of the US House and Senate is up 9/08	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	for grabs on November 2nd.	Steven Smith
		One of the Little Rock Nine, the first black students to integrate Little Rock Central High School in 0.400		1957, died Sunday. American RadioWorks and 9/08	HISTORY	NPR's Juan Williams tell the story on Midday.	Juan Williams Unemployment and trade numbers ease fears of double-dip recession. Will President Obama's economic proposals pass Congress, and will they 9/09	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	make any difference?	Louis Johnston, Chris Farrell
3/03	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	On Midday, hear Secretary of State Hillary	Louis Johnston, Chilis I arrell Clinton's September 8th major foreign policy speech to the Council on Foreign Relations.
		Clinton said Iran is morphing into a military dictatorship with a religious ideological veneer.
	INTERNATIONAL POLITICS /	She said the world looks to the US to solve
9/09	GOVERNMENT	problems on a global	Sec. Hillary Rodham Clinton
		A new report by former 9-11 Commission leaders Tom Kean and Lee Hamilton says the U.S. does not have systems in place to counteract growing numbers of radicalized terrorists and recruitment occurring in the United States. On the eve of the 9/11 anniversary, terrorism expert Louise Richardson analyzes terrorist threats around the	Louise Richardson, Pres.
9/10	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	world.	Barack Obama MPR founder, president and CEO Bill Kling joins Midday to talk about the future of MPR, the future of public media around the country, and the future 9/10	MEDIA	of news.	Bill Kling As Governor Pawlenty leads a trade mission to China and Japan, Asia expert Roy Grow discusses 0/40		the economic, political and cultural environments	D
9/13	STATE POLITICS / GOV	in both countries.	Roy Grow

		The three major party candidates for governor in Minnesota Republican Tom Emmer, Democrat
		Mark Dayton, and Independence Party candidate Tom Horner discussed education issues in a debate sponsored by the Association of	Tom Emmer, Mark Dayton, 9/13	STATE POLITICS / GOV	Metropolitan School Districts.	Tom Horner NPR's Julie Rovner joins Midday to answer questions about the new federal health care law.
		What takes effect this fall, and might the 2011
9/14	HEALTH / SCIENCE	Congress change or repeal the law?	Julie Rovner Hear DFL Gubernatorial candidate Mark Dayton in an hour-long forum at the Humphrey Institute. The three major party candidates will appear separately for a discussion of the major issues facing the state.
9/14	STATE POLITICS / GOV	Today, Mark Dayton.	Mark Dayton, Larry Jacobs
		The advance man and the press secretary for Hubert H. Humphrey share stories about one of Minnesota's most popular politicians. He was Mayor of Minneapolis, US Senator, and Vice President. Documentary "The Art of the Possible" premieres tonight at the University of Minnesota 9/15	HISTORY	Sept. 15 and airs on Public Television Nov. 18.	Norman Sherman, D. J. Leary
		The number of people in the U.S. living in poverty is on track for a record increase, with the ranks of working-age poor approaching 1960s levels that led President Lyndon B. Johnson to declare a war on poverty. An American RadioWorks documentary, ""The War on Poverty: From the Great Society to the Great Recession," examines the modern face of poverty and asks why LBJ's 9/15	HISTORY	dream of a Great Society is still beyond reach.	n/a
		The Clean Water and Climate Adaptation Summit is taking place this week at the University of Minnesota's Landscape Arboretum. National experts join Midday to forecast the changes in natural resources, weather, and animal and human activities that might be needed to adapt to a 9/16	ENVIRONMENT	changing climate.	Ben Santer, Doug Kluck

		The three major party candidates for governor in
		MinnesotaRepublican Tom Emmer, Democrat
		Mark Dayton, and Independence Party candidate Tom Horner gathered in Minneapolis for their 11th debate of the campaign season. The candidates dialed up the criticism of each others' plans for tackling a looming state budget	Tom Emmer, Mark Dayton, 9/16	STATE POLITICS / GOV	crisis.12:00 p.m.	Tom Horner Minnesotan and #1 best-selling author John Sandford joins Midday to talk about his 4th book in the Virgil Flowers series. It takes place in southern Minnesota. Under his real name, John Camp, he was a Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist for the St.
9/17	CULTURE / ARTS	Paul Pioneer Press.	John Sandford Hear Republican gubernatorial candidate Tom Emmer in an hour-long forum at the Humphrey Institute. The three major party candidates will appear separately for a discussion of the major 9/17	STATE POLITICS / GOV	issues facing the state. Today, Tom Emmer.	Tom Emmer Four minor party candidates for Governor debate the major issues facing the state. They represent the Green Party, the Grassroots Party, the Resource	Linda Eno, Farheen Hakeem,
9/20	STATE POLITICS / GOV	Party and the Ecology Democracy Party.	Ken Pentel, Chris Wright
		Barry Friedman, professor at the New York	, , University School of Law and author of "The Will of the People," speaks at the Chautauqua Institution about the relationship between the US Supreme 9/20	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	Court and popular opinion.	Barry Friedman Three former lawmakers with budget-making experience discuss the difficult budget-balancing task facing the new Governor and the 2011	Phil Krinkie, Roger Moe, Tim 9/21	STATE POLITICS / GOV	Legislature.	Penny
0,2:	0.7.12.1.02,1.00,	Hear Independence Party gubernatorial candidate Tom Horner in an hour-long forum at the Humphrey Institute. The three major party candidates appear separately for a discussion of the 9/21	STATE POLITICS / GOV	major issues facing the state. Today, Tom Horner.	Tom Horner
5,21	31/112 1 3211100 / 30 /	President Obama addresses the U.N.'s anti-poverty summit today and the U.N. General Assembly and the Clinton Global Initiative Thursday. A UN INTERNATIONAL BOUTTOS	observer joins Midday to discuss the role of the UN
9/22	INTERNATIONAL POLITICS /	in addressing global crises like war and poverty.	Richard Stoll
3122	GOVERNMENT	in addressing grovar crises like war and poverty.	Monard Stoll yton,

yton,
yton,
yton,
yton,
yton,

		Should accused terrorists be treated like enemy combatants or criminals? An "Intelligence Squared" debate features two panelists for, and two	Michael Hayden, Marc panelists against, the proposition: Treat terrorists	Thiessen, David Frakt, 9/28	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	like enemy combatants, not criminals.	Stephen Jones
		Two polls this week show DFL-er Mark Dayton with a big lead over Republican Tom Emmerand both the DFL and GOP candidates have a large 9/29	STATE POLITICS / GOV	lead over the IP's Tom Horner.	Lawrence Jacobs
		The U.S. Supreme Court opens a new term next week. Former U.S. Solicitor General Paul Clement speaks at the Chautauqua Institution about how the justices differ in their interpretation of the constitution - and what that means for American 9/29	NATIONAL POLITICS / GOV	law.	Paul Clement September ends with gains in the stock market, which may be its strongest September performance since 1939. Unemployment claims fell and economic growth and manufacturing exceeded expectations. Chris Farrell sorts through the 9/30	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	economic news and looks to the future.	Chris Farrell Former Labor Secretary and economics professor Robert Reich addresses the Commonwealth Club of California about his new book, "After-Schock:
9/30	BUSINESS / ECONOMICS	The Next Economy and America's Future."	Robert Reich

CATEGORIES:

International Politics/Government

National Politics/Gov

State Politics/Gov

Education

Health/Science

Business/Economics

Sports

Culture/Arts

Social Issues

Religion

Media

Environment

History

FCC Quarterly Programming Report April – June 2010

Date	Key 1	Synopsis	Guest/Reporter
		A new study says homelessness in Minnesota has risen sharply as unemployment and foreclosures have forced people out of permanent housing. The survey by St. Paul-based Wilder Research counted nearly 9,500 homeless people - up more than 20 4/01	BUS/ECON	percent from the 2006 count.	Greg Owen, Laura Kadwell Michael Jacobson, executive director of the Center for Science in the Public Interest, speaks at the City Club of Cleveland about food labeling, nutrition, 4/01	HEALTH/SCI	and how to change America's eating habits.	Michael Jacobson
		The Minnesota Twins, just back from spring training in Florida, play an exhibition game at Target Field this afternoon. They take on the St.
		Louis Cardinals. Doug Grow, longtime sportswriter and author of "We're Gonna Win, Twins!", joins Midday to talk about the history of the Minnesota
4/02	SPORTS	Twins.	Doug Grow
		On April 3, 1948, President Harry Truman signed legislation launching the Marshall Plan, a plan to rebuild Europe after World War II. Historian Mark Skoler discusses soldier-diplomat General George Marshall, who sold a war-weary America on that 4/02	HISTORY	plan.	Mark Skoler
		Next weekend, Minnesota will honor its 1,000-plus "Red Bull" National Guard members who served over the past seven years of conflict in Iraq.
		Foreign service expert and former ambassador to Yemen, Barbara Bodine joins us to discuss America's ongoing presence in Iraq and what the 4/05	INTL POL	future may hold.	Barbara Bodine With just over a week before taxes are due, the commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service, Douglas Shulman discusses his role in overseeing 4/05	NATL POL	the collection of $2.4 trillion in tax revenue.	Douglas Shulman
		The Minnesota Legislature is back in session this week. MPR Political Editor Mike Mulcahy, along with reporters Tom Scheck and Tim Pugmire, join Midday for a look at the major issues lawmakers	Mike Mulcahy, Tom Scheck,
4/06	STATE POL	will tackle yet this session.	Tim Pugmire

		T/ 41 C 1 T
		Kathleen Sebelius, secretary of the U.S Department of Health and Human Services, speaks live at the 4/06	NATL POL	National Press Club about the new health care bill.	Kathleen Sebelius Minneapolis Public Schools Superintendent Bill Green joins us to talk about inequalities of 4/07	EDUCATION	opportunity and achievement in public education.	William Green Hot on the heels of the passage of historic health care legislation, House Speaker Nancy Pelosi returns to her native California to discuss the bill at 4/07	NATL POL	the Commonwealth Club of California.	Nancy Pelosi President Barack Obama and Russian President Dmitry Medvedev signed a nuclear treaty Thursday in Prague. The treaty, which has been dubbed "New START," will reduce the nuclear warheads of the two countries to 1,550 each over the next seven years. It must be ratified by the U.S. Senate 4/08	INTL POL	and the Russian legislature.	Brian Atwood
		Nick Hayes, professor of history at Saint John's University in Collegeville, joins Midday in the studio to talk about his new memoir, "And One Fine Morning: Memories of My Father." The memoir traces his family origins and his father's story, including his father's experience growing up 4/08	CULTURE/ARTS	Catholic in Protestant Minneapolis.	Nick Hayes Commentators from two ends of the political	, spectrum join Midday for a discussion of the latest 4/09	STATE POL	news in both national and state politics.	Todd Rapp, Maureen Shaver Hear the latest news and analysis of Justice Stevens' announcement that he's retiring, followed by former Justice Sandra Day O'Connor and Justice Stephen Breyer discussing judicial selection at the	Sandra Day O'Connor,
4/09	NATL POL	2009 Aspen Ideas Festival.	Stephen Breyer, Viet Dinh
		The Minnesota Twins take on the Boston Red Sox in their first regular-season game at the new stadium. Politicians, journalists, fans, and a former	Howard Sinker, Mike Opat, player join Midday in studio and from the ballpark	Rick Nelson, Jacque Jones, 4/12	SPORTS	to discuss the Twins' new home.	Dan Kenney, Paul Huttner, Jim Bickal, Brandt Williams
1, 12	51 51(15	MPR's chief economics correspondent Chris Farrell	Diotai, Diana Minamo sifts through the economic tea leaves: the jobs numbers, the stock market, the housing market and more. Is the recession nearing an end? How will we 4/13	BUS/ECON	know?	Chris Farrell
7,10	200/20014	MIQ II I	Cinio i ditoli

1	I		T
		A documentary explores a little-known aspect of the Space Race its role in the Civil Rights era.
		Produced by Soundprint and Richard Paul, the documentary is called, "Race and the Space Race:
		The Unlikely Story of Civil Rights and the Space Program." It is hosted by Mae Jemison, the first 4/13	HISTORY	African-American woman in space.	Mae Jemison Nationally known political scientist Steven Schier analyzes the Tea Party movement in Minnesota and 4/14	NATL POL	the U.S.	Steven Schier
		This month marks the 145th anniversary of the end of the Civil War. Historian Jay Winik speaks about his book "April, 1865: The Month That Saved America" at the Commonwealth Club of 4/14	HISTORY	California.	Jay Winik
		Pulitzer Prize and Emmy Award-winning reporter	• Hedrick Smith comes to the Twin Cities for a Freshwater Society speech April 27th. The producer of the acclaimed PBS Frontline documentary "Poisoned Waters" joins MIDDAY to 4/15	ENVIRONMENT	answer listener questions.	Hedrick Smith Janet Napolitano, secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, speaks live at the National 4/15	NATL POL	Press Club about aviation security.	Janet Napolitano On the day of the White House Conference on America's Great Outdoors, two nature experts join MIDDAY to answer questions about wildlife
4/16	ENVIRONMENT	habitat and the spring bird migration.	Jim Williams, Chet Meyers Dina Temple-Raston, counterterrorism correspondent for National Public Radio, discusses terrorism on U.S. soil and abroad. Temple-Raston was at the University of St. Thomas as part of Minnesota Public Radio's Broadcast Journalist
4/16	INTL POL	series.	Dina Temple-Raston Minn. Supreme Court Justice and NFL Hall of Famer Alan Page and his wife Diane Sims Page established the Page Education Foundation to help students of color attend post-secondary education 4/19	EDUCATION	and to provide mentors for younger children.	Alan Page, Diane Sims Page

		THE GOLD AND A LOCAL CONTRACTOR OF THE CONTRACTO
		The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), which played a major part in the Civil Rights Movement, marked its 50th anniversary with a celebration at Shaw University in Raleigh, North Carolina. Congressman John Lewis, a hero of the Movement, and U.S. Attorney General Eric 4/19	HISTORY	Holder were featured speakers at the event.	John Lewis, Eric Holder DFL candidates for governor join Midday to explain their views on the major issues in the run up to the state DFL Party endorsement convention this weekend in Duluth. Four candidates will appear on Midday on Tuesday, and four on	Matt Entenza, John Marty, Tom 4/20	STATE POL	Wednesday.	Rukavina, Paul Thissen Pedro Noguera, a professor at New York University's Steinhart School and the author of "Unfinished Business: Closing the Racial Achievement Gap in Our Schools," spoke at 4/20	EDUCATION	Macalester College about inequality in education.	Pedro Noguera Four DFL candidates for Governor join MIDDAY to discuss the major issues. The DFL party will meet to endorse a Gubernatorial candidate	R.T. Ryback, Margaret Saturday. Four more DFL candidates were on	Anderson Kelliher, Mark
4/21	STATE POL	MIDDAY Tuesday.	Dayton, Susan Gaertner Nationwide, many suburban schools are doing a good job educating white students, but those schools are not getting the same results with Black and Latino students. This documentary tells the story of a suburban high school with lots of resources and a diverse student body that is 4/21	EDUCATION	struggling to close the achievement gap.
		The Dean of Minnesota's environmentalists reflects on the major environmental issues faced in April 1970 compared to today. Are things better or 4/22	ENVIRONMENT	worse? Have new problems emerged?	Chuck Dayton To protect the public from sexual violence, the U.S. has enacted get-tough laws targeting released sex offenders. A new documentary, "No Brother of Mine" explores the impact of those laws. The program tells the story of four Minnesota sex 4/22	SOCIAL ISSUES	offenders.

1	T	T Democrats meet in Duluth to nominate a candidate for governor. The process should reduce the field of current candidates by five who have said they will abide by the will of the delegates. But a number of delegates have not indicated whom to support. The two frontrunners are Minneapolis
		Mayor R. T. Rybak and House Speaker Margaret	George Latimer, Joan Growe,
4/23	STATE POL	Anderson Kelliher.	Todd Rapp, Maureen Shaver Midday features the DFL-endorsed gubernatorial candidate Margaret Anderson Kelliher, and the three other major contenders who will meet her in	Margaret Anderson Kelliher, the party primary: Mark Dayton, Matt Entenza and	Matt Entenza, Mark Dayton, 4/26	STATE POL	Susan Gaertner.	Susan Gaertner, Todd Rapp Brian McLaren, featured speaker at the Westminster Town Hall Forum in downtown Minneapolis, discusses how to be a person of faith in today's world. McLaren is the founding pastor of a nondenominational church in the Baltimore area and the author of several books, including his 4/26	RELIGION	latest, "A New Kind of Christianity."	Brian McLaren Star Tribune editorial writer and columnist Lori Sturdevant was awarded the David Graven Award at the 2010 Frank Premack Public Affairs Journalism Awards Program and joins Midday to talk about her 35 years of political reporting and editorial writing. She is also the author of several 4/27	MEDIA	award-winning books.	Lori Sturdevant Best-selling comic book and science fiction writer Neil Gaiman speaks at Stillwater High School as part of a new Twin Cities-wide program to celebrate reading. Gaiman is the award-winning author of "Coraline," "The Graveyard Book," and 4/27	ARTS/CULTURE	the acclaimed DC Comics series "Sandman."	Neil Gaiman
		The two leading contenders for Friday's Republican endorsement for Governor share their views on major issues and say why they are the best 4/28	STATE POL	candidate to win in November	Tom Emmer, Marty Seifert David Sanger, chief Washington correspondent for the New York Times, discusses his book, "The Inheritance: The World Obama Confronts and the Challenges to American Power." Sanger was a guest at the University of Minnesota's Humphrey Institute, where he talked with former Vice President Walter Mondale and political science
4/28	NATL POL	professor Larry Jacobs.	David Sanger

		Former US Senator and St. Paul Mayor Norm
		Coleman and former U.S. Congressman Vin Weber
4/00	07.75 501	discuss the past, present and future of Minnesota's
4/29	STATE POL	Republican Party.	Norm Coleman, Vin Weber A bipartisan commission met earlier this week in Washington, D.C. to discuss what to do about America's rising debt. America Abroad presents a special about the summit, "America's Growing 4/29	BUS/ECON	Debt: The Stakes for the US and the World."
		State representatives Tom Emmer and Marty Seifert line up support from among the delegates to the Republican nominating convention in Minneapolis. Prominent state GOPers are expected to make an appearance including Governor Tim 4/30	STATE POL	Pawlenty.	Todd Rapp, Maureen Shaver
		Sixth-grade teacher Ryan Vernosh was named Minnesota's Teacher of the Year 2010 at ceremonies Sunday. He teaches a classroom of boys at Maxfield Magnet Elementary School in St.
5/03	EDUCATION	Paul.	Ryan Vernosh
		Minnesota Public Radio's Chief Economics Correspondent Chris Farrell and a special panel of guests discussed how we can live well within our	Chair Francii Ctamban Carith means. Farrell is the author of "The New	Chris Farrell, Stephen Smith, Janet Bodner, Kara McGuire, 5/03	BUS/ECON	Frugality."	Dara Moskowitz Grumdahl Gubernatorial candidates Tom Horner, Rob Hahn and John Uldrich answer questions about the major issues prior to the Independence Party endorsing	Rob Hahn, Tom Horner, John 5/04	STATE POL	convention Saturday in Bloomington.	Uldrich
0,01	0171121 02	MPR President Bill Kling answers questions from	Old library Minnesota Public Radio listeners and online
5/04	MEDIA	readers prior to the spring membership drive.	Bill Kling
0/04	WEDIA	GOP Gubernatorial candidate Tom Emmer answers	Biii Riiiig questions in a statewide call-in program following his endorsement at the Republican State 5/05	STATE POL	Convention Friday.	Tom Emmer
3/03	SIMIE PUL	The Minnesota Supreme Court ruled 4-3	TOTT ETITLET Wednesday that Gov. Tim Pawlenty overstepped his authority when he made unilateral cuts last year to balance the state's budget. Legislative leaders	Tom Scheck, Margaret 5 /0-	07477	from both parties react to the ruling, and what it	Anderson Kelliher, Dave
5/05	STATE POL	means for the state budget deficit.	Senjem, Dick Cohen

		NI LII
		Nick Hayes, professor of history at Saint John's University in Collegeville, joins Midday in the
		studio to talk about his new memoir, "And One Fine Morning: Memories of My Father." The
		memoir traces his family origins and his father's
		story, including his father's experience growing up 5/06	HISTORY	Catholic in Protestant Minneapolis.	Nick Hayes On May 8, 1945, 60 million Americans tuned in to hear "On a Note of Triumph," Norman Corwin's radio masterpiece marking the end of World War II in Europe. It was the most listened-to radio drama in U.S. history. This week, the legendary radio dramatist Norman Corwin celebrated his 100th birthday. To mark the occasion, Midday features 5/06	MEDIA	highlights from "On a Note of Triumph." Veteran political journalists John Heilemann and Mark Halperin are out with a sweeping account of the 2008 campaign. It's called, "Game Change: Obama and the Clintons, McCain and Palin, and the Race of a Lifetime." The two journalists talked about their book at the Commonwealth Club of	John Heilemann, Mark
5/07	NATL POL	California.	Halperin
		University of Minnesota climatologist and meteorologist Mark Seeley anwers your questions about the early Spring weather and what lies ahead 5/07	SCIENCE	for the Summer.	Mark Seeley Over the weekend, the Independence Party endorsed Tom Horner as their candidate for governor. He joins Midday to take questions on the 5/10	STATE POL	major issues facing Minnesota.	Tom Horner Speaker of the House Margaret Anderson Kelliher and Senate Majority Leader Larry Pogemiller join Midday from the Capitol. They will discuss the DFL's $2.8 billion plan to close the state budget deficit and preview the final week of the 2010	Margaret Anderson Kelliher, 5/10	STATE POL	legislative session.	Larry Pogemiller
5, . 0		Minnesota Public Radio producer and "Movie Maven" Stephanie Curtis joins Midday to weigh in on Iron Man 2, Babies, and other films coming out 5/11	CULTURE/ARTS	this summer.	Stephanie Curtis
5, 11	33213112//11173	Midday with the "Movie Maven" continues, as	Cispilatio Cardo Stephanie Curtis lists her all-time best and worst 5/11	CULTURE/ARTS	courtroom dramas.	Stephanie Curtis
J/ 1 1	JOETONE/ANTO	TOWASTOCKE GENERALISM	L Stophanic Suitis

5/17	STATE POL	the weekend - and the political fallout.	Mike Mulcahy, Tom Scheck, Tim Pugmire special session to approve the deal. MPR's political team analyzes what happened at the Capitol over	Mika Mulaahu Tara Cahaali agreement on how to close a nearly $3 billion budget deficit. The Legislature is meeting in a Gov. Pawlenty and state lawmakers reached an 5/14	STATE POL	In Midday's second hour broadcasting from the Capitol rotunda, Gary Eichten and Mike Mulcahy will continue interviewing key DFLers and Republicans as they try to wrap up the many issues facing the Legislature before the session deadline on Sunday night.	Larry Pogemiller, David H. Senjem, Tom Hanson, Lyn Carlson, Dick Cohen, Terri Bonoff, Sandy Pappas, Tom Rukavina, Ann Lenczewski, John Marty, Julie Rosen, Ellen Anderson, Tom Hackbarth, Steve Simon, Steve Gottwalt, Jim Vickerman, Dennis Fredrickson
5/14	STATE POL	Gary Eichten and MPR's political editor Mike Mulcahy will speak live from the Capitol rotunda with dozens of influential legislators. They will be in the midst of trying to hammer out a solution to the state's budget crisis before the session deadline at midnight on Sunday.	Margaret Anderson Kelliher, Kurt Zellers, Tony Sertich, Tom Bakk, Julianna Ortmann, Alice Hausman, Keith Langseth, Mindy Greiling, David Hann, Erin Murphy, Matt Dean, Karla Bigham, Paul Kohls, Marty Seifert
5/13	ARTS/CULTURE	recently at the Commonwealth Club to discuss his latest legal thriller. It's the sequel to his best-selling novel "Presumed Innocent," which was published 23 years ago.	Scott Turow
5/13	HEALTH/SCI	who has reported on health policy for 26 years, joins Midday to answer questions about how the sweeping changes to the health care system will affect people's coverage.  Attorney and best-selling author Scott Turow spoke	Julie Rovner
		Now that the federal health care overhaul has passed, what happens next? NPR's Julie Rovner, 5/12	HISTORY	Atlanta Congressman and civil rights leader John Lewis spoke recently at the celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, a group called "the shock troops" of the civil rights movement.	John Lewis
5/12	BUS/ECON	mean for the economic recovery.	Chris Farrell Chris Farrell joins Midday to discuss the recent record market swings, and what the simultaneous job gains and unemployment rate increase in April months in office.	i rodu rapp, madreen Shaver, 1		elections underway, and Gov. Tim Pawlenty's last	Todd Rapp, Maureen Shaver, adjourned legislative session, the gubernatorial Jack Uldrich join Midday to discuss the recently Political analysts Todd Rapp, Maureen Shaver and 5/20	INTL POL	in the early 1990s.	Hanan Ashrawi delegation to the US-Israel-Palestinian peace talks spokesperson for the Palestinian Authority Liberation Organization, and was the official the executive committee of the Palestinian Dialogue and Democracy. She is also a member of Palestinian Initiative for the Promotion of Global East. Ashrawi is the founder of Miftah - the Minneapolis, discusses the conflict in the Middle Westminster Town Hall Forum in downtown Hanan Ashrawi, featured speaker at the 5/20	HEALTH/SCI	discuss what nurses do to provide health care.	Christine Mueller, Alice Swan

		Two professors at local nurses training programs
5/19	INATE PUL	will over voters tills fall.	Till Name
5/19	NATL POL	win over voters this fall.	Tim Kaine Tuesday's primary elections and his party's plan to Kaine speaks to the National Press Club about 5/19	INATE PUL	Democratic National Committee Chairman Tim	Amy Klobuchar
5/10	NATL POL	foreign policy issues facing the U.S. Congress.	Amy Klobuchar spill in the Gulf, and other key domestic and President Obama's Supreme Court nominee, the oil Eichten from Washington D.C. to talk about 3/10	THOTORT	Minnesota's U.S. Sen. Amy Klobuchar joins Gary
5/18	HISTORY	International Hunt for His Assassin." Stalking of Martin Luther King, Jr. and the his new book, "Hellhound on His Trail: The interviews best-selling author Hampton Sides about 3/10	SIAIEPUL	Minnesota Public Radio's Stephen Smith	Tim Pawlenty
5/18	STATE POL	studio to answer questions about the budget, taxes and other major issues.	Tim Pawlanty adjourned, Gov. Tim Pawlenty is in the MPR
		The day after Minnesota's 2010 Legislative session
5/17	STATE POL	career.  The day ofter Minnesotals 2010 Logislative session	Tim Pawlenty
E /4 =	07475 001	documentary about Thurgood Marshall's life and an excerpt from an American RadioWorks anniversary of Brown vs. Board, Midday features features that audio. Afterward, to mark the 56th take questions about the budget deal. Midday Pawlenty met with reporters at the state Capitol to
•

		An 'Intelligence Squared' debate features two panelists for and two panelists against the	Mant Zualiamaan Dan Gar proposition: Does Obama's foreign policy spell	Mort Zuckerman, Dan Senor, Wesley Clark, Bernard Henri-5/21	INTL POL	America's decline?	Levy
	-	Former senior staff member of the 9/11	, Commission and CIA officer Michael Hurley joins Midday to discuss the staff shakeups in national 5/24	INTL POL	intelligence and recent intelligence failures.	Michael Hurley Despite worries over violence in Iraq, U.S. officials remain committed to a Sept. 1 deadline for cutting the American military presence in that country by nearly half. A new documentary from American 5/24	INTL POL	Abroad Media takes a look at what's next for Iraq.
		Minn. Congressman Jim Oberstar answers MPR questions about hearings investigating the massive 5/25	ENVIRONMENT	and ongoing oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico.	Jim Oberstar In a speech to the graduating class of cadets at West Point on May 22, 2010, President Obama outlined a foreign policy vision that repudiated the 5/25	INTL POL	approach taken by President George W. Bush.	Barack Obama International activist and daughter of Archbishop Desmond Tutu delivered the keynote address at the St. Paul Foundation's "Facing Race Ambassador
5/25	SOCIAL ISSUES	Award Celebration" April 19, 2010.	Naomi Tutu Karl Marlantes, a decorated Marine veteran of the Vietnam War and author of the best-selling novel,
E/26	ADTO/OUT TUDE	"Matterhorn: A Novel of the Vietnam War" joins Midday to discuss war-time experiences.	Korl Marlantaa
5/26	ARTS/CULTURE	Barbara Bush, the daughter of former President	Karl Marlantes
		George W. Bush, speaks live at the National Press Club about the disparity in health care between the world's rich and poor. Bush is founder and 5/26	HEALTH/SCI	president of the non-profit Global Health Corps.	Barbara Bush
5,20	112/12/11/7001	president of the non-profit Global Housell Colps.	Daibara Basir Reports from MPR's series on how the Great 5/27	BUS/ECONOMY	Recession is affecting Minnesota's job market.
		As his administration continues to respond to the oil spill in the Gulf of Mexico, President Obama announced today a moratorium on new deep-water oil drilling permits. He held a news conference at 5/27	ENVIRONMENT	the White House.	Barack Obama Heading into the Memorial Day weekend, international relations professor and Army veteran 5 /00	NATI SOL	Roy Grow talks about the Vietnam War and its
5/28	NATL POL	impact then and now.	Roy Grow

		Meet the Press moderator David Gregory brings the show to Minneapolis to interview Governor Tim Pawlenty on the major issues facing the country.
		The audience asked questions as well. Hear the 5/28	NATL POL	entire event on Midday.	David Gregory, Tim Pawlenty
3/20	NATEPOL	On a special Memorial Day edition of Midday,	David Gregory, Tilli Fawlerity Vietnam Veteran and author Tim O'Brien reflects on "The Things They Carried." This month is the 20th anniversary of the celebrated war novel, and O'Brien marked the occasion with an audience at
E/04	ADTO/OUT TUDE	the Club Book series.	Time O'Drien
5/31	ARTS/CULTURE		Tim O'Brien
		A Memorial Day broadcast of a conversation with F /0.4	ADTO/OUT TUDE	Karl Marlantes, author of the best-selling book,	IZ and Manufacture
5/31	ARTS/CULTURE	"Matterhorn: A Novel of the Vietnam War."	Karl Marlantes
		What is the nature of the economic recovery? How 6/01	BUS/ECONOMY	much economic optimism is out there?	Louis Johnston
0/01	D00/2001101111	The Yes Men say they create elaborate hoaxes to	Lodio comision embarrass corporations and denounce corporate greed. One of the co-founders explains his tactics in an appearance at the Commonwealth Club of 6/01	SOCIAL ISSUES	California.	Andy Bichlbaum
0/01	00011/12/100020	Former Republican Governor Arne Carlson says	7 may Biombaam he's embarking on a Paul Revere Tour to raise 6/02	STATE POL	alarm about Minnesota's financial condition.	Arne Carlson
0/02	OTATE TOE	New York Times reporter Michael Moss won a	7 WHO GUILDON Pulitzer Prize in Explanatory Reporting this year for his article "The Burger that Shattered her Life," about the troubling gaps in safety in the food industry. Moss recently spoke to an audience at the Commonwealth Club about his investigative 6/02	HEALTH/SCI	reporting on food safety.	Michael Moss
0/02	112/(211)/001	What should children learn in school? Around the	Wildriget Wess country, battles rage over what texts kids should read and what they should be expected to know.
		"The Great Textbook War" is an American RadioWorks documentary that takes us to West Virginia, where a battle for the hearts and minds of American schoolchildren erupted in violence in the
6/03	EDUCATION	-
6/03	EDUCATION	1970s.

		Minnesota's academic standards are often cited as some of the best in the nation. But are schoolchildren really learning what the state says they should know? American RadioWorks and Minnesota Public Radio host a live conversation in MPR's UBS Forum about the documentary, "The Great Textbook War" and how we decide what our	Stephen Smith, Tom Weber,
6/03	EDUCATION	children learn.	Alice Seagren, Jamie Crannell Dale Connelly joins Midday to talk about his 34-year career as a radio reporter, humorist, writer, and music host at Minnesota Public Radio. This morning was the last broadcast of The Dale 6/04	MEDIA	Connelly Show on the Radio Heartland service.	Dale Connelly Tomorrow marks the 63rd anniversary of a speech given by former U.S. Secretary of State George C.
		Marshall calling for American assistance in rebuilding Europe after World War II. Marshall went on to craft the Marshall Plan and became an eminent figure in 20th century history. Historian, author and University of Vermont Professor Mark Stoler spoke earlier this year about Marshall and his illustrious career at the Minnesota History 6/04	HISTORY	Center in St. Paul.	Mark Stoler
0/04	THOTORY	U.S. Rep. John Kline, R-Minn., joins Midday to	Walk Stoler report on his five-daylong trip to Afghanistan.
		Kline was part of a bipartisan group of Congressmen that returned last week. They studied troop training and equipment, the surge in forces, reconstruction efforts, combating corruption and training of the Afghanistan army and national 6/07	INTL POL	police.	John Kline
6/07	INTL POL	Former National Security Advisor Brent Scowcroft	John Kilile speaks live at the National Press Club as part of the annual Gerald Ford Journalism Awards, which
		,
6/07	MEDIA	honor outstanding coverage of the presidency and national defense.	Bront Chausaroft
6/07	MEDIA		Brent Snowcroft Family medicine doctor Jon Hallberg joins Midday 0/55		to answer questions about health care practices and 6/08	HEALTH/SCI	medical concerns.	Jon Hallberg

		1 1 2 1 1 2 1
		A Minnesota law professor is jailed in Rwanda, charged with denying that country's 1994 genocide.
		Peter Erlinder doesn't deny mass violence happened, but says it's wrong to blame just one side. Midday features an American RadioWorks documentary, released on the 10th anniversary of the massacre, about what happened in Rwanda when the central African nation exploded in 6/08	HISTORY	violence.
		MPR health correspondent Lorna Benson joins Midday to discuss the nurses strike that is scheduled to begin Thursday at 7 a.m. The strike would last 24 hours and involve 14 metro-area 6/09	HEALTH/SCI	hospitals.	Lorna Benson
		An 'Intelligence Squared' panel debates whether	Dennis Avery, Blake Hurst, organic food is just good for marketing or if there	John Krebs, Charles Benbrook, Urvashi Rangan, Jeffrey
6/09	HEALTH/SCI	are actually health benefits.	Steingarten Join a Midday discussion about the gubernatorial election in Minnesota and the trends in political 6/10	STATE POL	races around the country.	Maureen Shaver, Todd Rapp Journalist and best-selling author Sebastian Junger speaks at the UBS Forum about his new book titled 'War'. The book follows a platoon of soldiers in Eastern Afghanistan and explores the psychological and social effects of combat in one of the most 6/10	ARTS/CULTURE	dangerous regions of the country.	Sebastian Junger Almost a decade ago, third graders at seven high-poverty schools in the Twin Cities got an offer: Stay in school, and we'll give you $10,000 for college. All the students had to do was stay in the Minneapolis or St. Paul public schools, graduate, and go to college. Midday looks at how the 6/11	EDUCATION	experiment turned out.	Joe Nathan Live coverage of the opening day of World Cup soccer on the BBC's "World Have Your Say." The World Cup is the globe's most popular sporting 6/11	SPORTS	event.
		Upon her retirement from Cal Polytech, former Minn. Supreme Court justice Sandra Gardebring joins Midday to discuss her ideas about higher education, justice, the environment, social services, 6/14	STATE POL	the role of government and more.	Sandra Gardebring Ogren

		This year marks the 50th anniversary of the 1960 presidential election. Midday features a discussion about a pivotal moment in that contest: the West Virgina primary, in which Sen. John F. Kennedy
6/14	HISTORY	defeated Minnesota's own Hubert Humphrey.
0/14	1110101(1	A political scientist from the gulf region joins Midday to discuss presidential leadership in times
6/15	NATL POL	of crisis.	Ric Stoll
0/10	TOTTET OF	Paul Steiger, the editor-in-chief of ProPublica and	THIS STORE chairman of the Committee to Protect Journalists, speaks live at the National Press Club about collaborating and competing in the new era of 6/15	MEDIA	journalism.	Paul Steiger
0/10	WIEDIN	In his Oval Office address, President Obama urged	1 dai Ciolgoi the country to unleash American innovation to create a green energy future. How can Minnesota 6/16	ENVIRONMENT	get from here to there?	Bill Glahn, J. Drake Hamilton
0,10		Four people working to make electric cars a reality gathered recently at the Commonwealth Club of	Mark Duvell, Tany Decouets California to discuss the challenges and promises	Mark Duvall, Tony Posawatz, Jit Bhattacharya, Richard
6/16	ENVIRONMENT	of electric vehicles.	Lowenthal Minnesota's newest park, Lake Vermilion State Park, opens for limited activities later this summer.
		The director of state parks joins Midday to answer questions about features, costs, conditions and 6/17	CULTURE/ARTS	activities at the new park and the old ones.	Courtland Nelson In 1964, President Lyndon B. Johnson declared a war on poverty. He believed a mighty nation could eliminate want. Almost five decades later, nearly 40 million Americans still live in poverty. A new American RadioWorks documentary examines the modern face of poverty and asks why LBJ's dream 6/17	SOCIAL ISSUES	of a Great Society is still beyond reach.
		University of Minnesota Regents meet next week to fix a $152 million gap in the 2010-11 budget.
6/18	EDUCATION	President Bruininks discusses the challenges ahead.	Robert Bruininks Rajiv Shah, administrator of the United States Agency for International Development (USAID), speaks at the National Press Club about the U.S. response to disasters in Haiti and elsewhere, as well 6/18	INTL POL	as the future of international development.	Rajiv Shah Former St. Paul Mayor George Latimer joins Midday to talk about the state of political discourse 	today, and share his views on major issues in the 6/21	STATE POL	news.	George Latimer

		Do Edmand Millands and CEO of Labora
		Dr. Edward Miller, dean and CEO of Johns Hopkins Medicine, speaks at the National Press Club about the nation's new health care law, including how doctors and hospitals are preparing for the expected increase of 32 million newly 6/21	HEALTH/SCI	insured individuals.	Edward Miller Representatives of the nurses and the hospitals discuss the key issues that divide them. Nurses voted Monday to authorize a second open-ended 6/22	HEALTH/SCI	strike.	Maureen Shriner, Dick Hebrink Garrison Keillor author, storyteller, humorist, and host of the radio show "A Prairie Home Companion" speaks in Blaine as part of the Club
6/22	ARTS/CULTURE	Book program.	Garrison Keillor
		Tim Walz, the U.S. Representative for Minnesota's 1st Congressional District, discusses the realationship between generals, diplomats and the 6/23	NATL POL	U.S. president.	Tim Walz Oliver Stone, renowned film director and screenwriter, speaks at the National Press Club about making his new movie, "South of Border".
		The movie examines modern politics in Latin 6/23	ARTS/CULTURE	America.	Oliver Stone Constitutional law professor Suzanna Sherry analyzes the important rulings of the Supreme Court this term, the final term of Justice John Paul Stevens. She also previews next week's confirmation hearings for the new justice, Elena 6/24	NATL POL	Kagan.	Suzanna Sherry Jonathan Alter, Newsweek columnist and author of "The Promise: President Obama, Year One" speaks
6/24	NATL POL	at the Westminster Town Hall Forum.	Jonathan Alter In the final weeks before July 4, 1776, how and why did a group of patriots abandon reconciliation with England and embrace American 6/25	HISTORY	independence?	William Hogeland Sixty years ago today, North Korean military forces crossed the 38th Parallel, igniting the Korean War. More than 36,000 Americans lost their lives in that war. However, the war is technically still not over; only a cease fire was signed in 1953. Midday features a 2003 American RadioWorks documentary that examines how the war began and its impact on global politics in the 6/25	HISTORY	second half of the 20th century.

	T		1
		The Senate Judiciary Committee is set to scrutinize Supreme Court hopeful Elena Kagan in hearings this week. The stakes are high for the court's liberal minority justices, but Kagan's lack of judicial experience makes it tough to predict how she'll 6/28	NATL POL	vote on sensitive social issues.	Lee Epstein, Bradley Joondeph Live coverage of the confirmation hearings for U.S.
		Supreme Court nominee Elena Kagan. Kagan will be questioned by members of the Senate Judiciary
6/28	NATL POL	committee.
		Live coverage of the confirmation hearings for U.S.
		Supreme Court nominee Elena Kagan. Kagan will be questioned by members of the Senate Judiciary
6/29	NATL POL	committee.
		Minnesota Supreme Court Chief Justice Eric Magnuson joins Midday to discuss his tenure on the state's highest court, including the U.S. Senate 6/29	STATE POL	election recount. He retires Wednesday.	Eric J. Magnuson
		In a speech this month to the American Constitution Society, U.S. Sen. Al Franken, D-Minn., criticized the direction of the high court, which he says has been favoring powerful corporate interests over individuals. His speech drew criticism from some conservatives and 6/29	NATL POL	garnered a lot of national press attention.	Al Franken
		All the members of the Senate Judiciary Committee made opening statements and asked questions of Supreme Court nominee Elena Kagan. What have 6/30	NATL POL	we learned about her, and about the senators?	David Schultz Hear extended excerpts of today's questioning of Supreme Court nominee Elena Kagan by Minnesota Senators Al Franken and Amy
6/30	NATL POL	Klobuchar.	Amy Klobuchar, Al Franken Minnesota Public Radio reporter Stephanie Hemphill's 2006 "Voices of Minnesota" interview with Gerald Heaney about his 40-year career on the federal appeals court, his role in the DFL party, and his heroism on D-Day in World War II. Heaney 6/30	NATL POL	died this month at the age of 92.	Gerald Heaney
			···

CATEGORIES:

International Politics/Government
National Politics/Gov
Sports
Environment
State Politics/Gov
Culture/Arts
Histor
Education
Social Issues
Health/Science
Religion

FCC Quarterly Programming Report January – March 2010

Date	Key 1	Synopsis	Guest/Reporter
	•	From the pilgrims to Independence Hall, the Civil	• War and the Civil Rights movement, author Bruce Feiler traces how the Exodus story of Moses plays out in American history. Feiler discusses his newest book, "America's Prophet: Moses and the American Story" in conversation with Stephen
1/01	HISTORY	Smith, executive editor of American RadioWorks.	Bruce Feiler, Stephen Smith Playwright and humorist Kevin Kling talks about his new book, "Holiday Inn," which he calls "a romp through a year of holidays." Kling spoke at the Minneapolis Central Library as part of the 1/01	CULTURE/ARTS	library's Talk of the Stacks program.	Kevin Kling Senate Majority Leader Larry Pogemiller and House Speaker Margaret Anderson Kelliher discuss the Governor's unallotment process and how they	Larry Pogemiller, Margaret 1/04	STATE POL	plan to address the state's budget crisis.	Anderson Kelliher An 'Intelligence Squared' debate features three	Jim VendeHei, Michael Wolff, panelists FOR and three panelists AGAINST the	Phil Bronstein, David Carr, proposition: Good Riddance to the Mainstream	Katrina vanden Heuvel, John
1/04	MEDIA	Media.	Hockenberry Former Vice President Walter Mondale joins Midday on his 82nd birthday to offer his views on the major issues facing the country in 2010 and 1/05	NATL POL	beyond.	Walter Mondale
		An "Intelligence Squared" debate features three	Andres Martinez, Jeffrey A. panelists for, and three panelists against, the	Miron, Fareed Zakaria, Jorge 1./0.5	DIEL DOL	proposition: America is to blame for Mexico's drug	Castaneda, Chris W. Cox, Asa
1/05	INTL POL	War.	Hutchinson Nationally renowned bioethicist Arthur Caplan reviews the ethical challenges of the past decade, and the controversies he thinks will emerge in 2010
1/06	HEALTH SCI	and beyond.	Arthur Conlon
1/00	HEALIH SCI	As we work our way out of a recession, an	Arthur Caplan American RadioWorks documentary explores the lessons we can learn from Franklin Delano Roosevelt's New Deal.
		Trouble from Douit
1/06	HISTORY
2,00	111010111

		President Obama says the Christmas airplane bombing plot was not uncovered because of a "failure to integrate and understand the intelligence that we already had." An intelligence expert analyzes what went wrong and what needs to be 1/07	NATL POL	fixed in America's intelligence network.	John Radsan
1/07	NATEFOL	Adm. Mike Mullen, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of	John Kadsan
		Staff, spoke recently at George Washington University about the state of the U.S. military. He answered questions from college students about national security, intelligence failures, and the wars 1 /07	NATI DOI	in Afghanistan and Iraq.	A due Miles Meller
1/07	NATL POL		Adm. Mike Mullen Republican Senate Minority Leader Dave Senjem and Republican House Minority Leader Kurt Zellers preview their priorities to solve the state's
		-
1 /00		budget crisis and address key issues in the 2010	Senator Dave Senjem,
1/08	STATE POL	legislative session opening February 4th.  Three scientists sat down together at the 2009	Representative Kurt Zellers Aspen Ideas Festival in Aspen, Colo. to discuss how our brains develop over the course of our 1 /00	HEALTH COL	lives.	Patricia Kuhl, Andrew Meltzoff,
1/08	HEALTH SCI		Harold Koplewicz
		NPR's health policy correspondent Julie Rovner explains the details of the final negotiations 1 1 underway in Congress. The president is hoping for passage of a health care reform bill in the next few
1/11	HEALTH COL	weeks.	Lulia Dannan
1/11	HEALTH SCI		Julie Rovner Union officials meet today with President Barack Obama to discuss the president's health care overhaul plan. In advance of that meeting, AFL-CIO President Richard Trumka speaks live at the National Press Club about major domestic 1/11	NATI DOI	legislative initiatives and labor issues.	Dishard Trumks
1/11	NATL POL	Former U.S. Ambassador to Yemen, Barbara	Richard Trumka Bodine, describes the history, culture, economy and politics of the country that is a new focus of the 1/12	INTL POL	war against Al-Qaida.	Barbara Bodine
1/12	INTL FUL	David Walker, a former comptroller general of the	Daivara Douille United States and former head of the Government Accountability Office, says the U.S. faces longterm
1/12	NATL POL	disaster if it doesn't fix its financial condition.	David Walker
1/12	NAILIUL	Media ethics professor Jane Kirtley joins Midday	David Waikei to sort through the ethical dilemmas ahead in 2010.
		Should TV cameras be allowed in the courtroom?
		Is it proper to pay news sources for the news they provide? Should journalists be forced to divulge 1/13	MEDIA	their sources?	Jane Kirtley
1/13	MEDIA	mon boulees.	Jane Kirtiey

		The number of dead from yesterday's devastating earthquake in Haiti is expected to run into the thousands. Midday features the BBC program 1/12	SOCIAL ISSUES	"World Have Your Say," with the latest from Haiti.
1/13	SOCIAL ISSUES	The Twin Cities-based American Refugee Committee humanitarian relief team arrives in Haiti today. Team leader Monte Achenbach, a veteran of rescue and relief efforts, joins Midday from the airport to discuss what the needs are, and 1/14	SOCIAL ISSUES	what will be done to help.	Monte Achenbach Miep Gies, the woman who helped hide Anne Frank from the Nazis and later saved Anne's diary, died this week in Amsterdam. She was 100 years old. Midday features a remembrance of Gies, plus an excerpt from an interview with Holocaust survivor and Nobel Peace Prize winner Elie 1/14	HISTORY	Wiesel.	Elie Wiesel Which carmakers have the momentum coming out of this week's North American International Auto 1/15	BUS ECON	Show and why?	Paul Eisenstein An American RadioWorks investigation into the abuse of Iraqi detainees and the psychological effect on American soldiers has won the silver Alfred I. duPont-Columbia University Award.
		Midday features that documentary, which follows members of a U.S. Army unit and their struggle to come to terms with what they did, and didn't do, in 1/15	SOCIAL ISSUES	Iraq.
		Sen. Al Franken, D-Minn, stops by Midday upon his return from a fact-finding trip to Afghanistan and Pakistan. He also answers listener questions about Haiti relief, health care reform, the economy 1/18	INTL POL	and more.	Al Franken Prominent civil rights leader Rev. Joseph Lowery discusses the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s dream. Lowery spoke at the 20th annual MLK Day 1/18	HISTORY	breakfast at the Minneapolis Convention Center.	Rev. Joseph Lowery Pulitzer Prize-winning columnist David Broder reflects on the first year of the Obama presidency, and the first years of presidents he has covered since Dwight Eisenhower.
1/19	NATL POL		David Broder

		C
		Surgeon and best-selling author Atul Gawande says a simple checklist can reduce the number of errors made in hospitals. Dr. Gawande discusses his new book, "The Checklist Manifesto: How to Get Things Right," at the Los Angeles Public Library's
1/19	HEALTH SCI	Aloud series.	Atul Gawande Monte Achenbach of the Minneapolis-based American Refugee Committee gives an on-the-scene report from Haiti on the rescue and relief mission after the earthquake and today's 6.1 aftershock. Achenbach has been in Haiti since 1/20	SOCIAL ISSUES	Friday.	Monte Achenbach Former Medtronic CEO Bill George shares his thoughts on health care reform in a speech to business and civic leaders. George was a featured speaker at the Cuningham Group as part of the 1/20	NATL POL	architectural firm's "Urban Currents" program.	Bill George Congressional scholar Steven Smith discusses the impact of the election of a Republican senator from Massachusetts and today's Supreme Court ruling on campaign finance. Midday also looks at the 1/21	NATL POL	Minnesota gubernatorial election.	Steven Smith
		A play about Sister Kenny, the Minnesota nurse who took on the medical establishment and helped thousands of polio survivors, opens Saturday at the History Theatre in St. Paul. Midday rebroadcasts a documentary about Sister Kenny's work and 1/21	HISTORY	legacy.
		Two Minnesota economists analyze the unemployment data and predict which sectors of the economy will improve in 2010. How does Minnesota compare to the rest of the countryand
1/22	BUS ECON	why?	Louis Johnston, Tony Barrett As democrats regroup in the wake of this week's Massachusetts special election, liberal historian and author Alan Brinkley discusses what President Obama has been doing wrong, and what Obama
1/22	NATL POL	must do to turn things around.	Alan Brinkley One in 10 Minnesota drivers has a DWI on their driving record. How should drunk driving be prevented and punished?
1/25	STATE POL		Stephen Simon

		E 1.20 4 AIDS '1 '1 For nearly 30 years, the AIDS epidemic has ravaged lives and nations around the world.
		Now, a new documentary from America Abroad looks at what's been done in those three decades to prevent AIDS both here in the U.S. and in the 1/25	HEALTH SCI	countries hardest hit by the epidemic.
		Former Republican Gov. Arne Carlson joins Midday to offer suggestions on how to solve 1/26	STATE POL	Minnesota's budget problems.	Gov. Arne Carlson Economist and former Secretary of Labor Robert Reich lays out his thoughts on what the economy will look like in 2010. Reich gave the Bank of America Walter E. Hoadley Annual Economic
1/26	BUS ECON	Forecast to the Commonwealth Club of California.	Robert Reich
		One of the nation's leading political analysts previews President Obama's first State of the Union
1/27	NATL POL	Address.	David Brooks, Tim Penny Tens of thousands of Somali-Americans have escaped a brutal civil war in their homeland and now call Minnesota home. But their journey in the United States has been fraught with new dangers.
		In a three-part series, reporter Laura Yuen explores 1/27	SOCIAL ISSUES	the challenges facing young Somalis in Minnesota.	Zuhur Ahmed Tom Bakk, Leslie Davis, Mark Dayton, Tom Emmer, Susan Gaertner, Rob Hahn, David Hann, Bill Hass, Phil Herwig, Tom Horner, Steve Kelley, Margaret Anderson Kelliher, John Marty,
		Twenty candidates for governor debated the issues	Tom Ruckavina, R.T. Rybak, Ole in a forum Wednesday night, sponsored by the	Savior, Marty Seifert, Paul Minnesota News Council and the League of	Thissen, John Uldrich, Rahn
1/28	STATE POL	Women Voters.	Workcuff
1/20	SIMILIOL	The superintendent of Minnesota's largest school district and the president of Minnesota's teachers union discuss they key funding and education policy issues the legislature will address in the 1/29	STATE POL	2010 session starting February 4th.	Dennis Carlson, Tom Dooher
1/27	STATETOL	A new report from the USC Annenberg School for	Demins Carrson, Tom Dooner Communications and Journalism finds that government subsidies, which have been a long-running source of revenue even for commercial media, are on the decline. The authors of the report spoke at the National Press Club in Washington,
1/29	MEDIA	D.C.	David Westphal, Geoffrey Cowan
1/47	MEDIA	D.C.	David Westphai, Oculley Cowall

2/1	STATE POL	DFL Gubernatorial candidates on eve of caucuses 12 DFL'ers are running for Governor in 2010. They discuss the issues on MIDDAY to help potential caucus-goers decide on a candidate to support.	Tom Bakk, Mark Dayton, Matt Entenza, Susan Gaertner, Steve Kelley, Margaret Anderson Kelliher, John Marty, Felix Montez, Tom Rukavina, R.T. Rybak, Paul Thissen, Ole Savior
	STATE POL	GOP candidates meet on caucus eve 7 Republican candidates for Governor meet on MIDDAY to discuss the issues, so potential caucus-goers can decide which candidate to support.	Bob Carney Leslie Davis Tom Emmer, Bill Haas, Phil Herwig, David Hann, Marty Seifert
2/2	STATE POL	Precinct caucuses will be held across the state tonight. Minnesotans will start to narrow the crowded field in the governor's race, as nonbinding straw polls give an early indication of how the fields are shaping up. The chairs of Minnesota's three major parties join Midday in the studio to take listener questions.	Brian Melendez, Tony Sutton, Jack Uldrich
		The science fiction sensation "Avatar" and the war- on-terror thriller "The Hurt Locker" lead the Academy Awards with nine nominations each. Minnesota Public Radio's Movie Maven Stephanie
2/2	CULTURE/ARTS	Curtis breaks down the Oscar favorites.  On the eve of the 2010 legislative session, Gov. Tim Pawlenty joins Gary Eichten in the MPR studios to answer questions about the state budget and the issues that will be the focus of the	Stephanie Curtis
2/3	STATE POL	upcoming legislative session.  Four gubernatorial candidates are emerging as candidates to beat after straw polls at the major party precinct caucuses last night. MPR political analysts Todd Rapp and Maureen Shaver will join Midday to sift through the tea leaves from this	Tim Pawlenty
2/3	STATE POL STATE POL	year's caucus results.  The Minnesota House and Senate face figuring out how to balance a budget with a $1.2 billion shortfall. Midday talks with legislators including DFL and Republican leaders of the House and Senate.	Margaret Anderson Kelliher, Kurt Zellers, Larry Pogemiller, David Senjem
2/5	MEDIA	Minnesota Public Radio President Bill Kling stops by Midday to answer questions from MPR listeners.	Bill Kling

	Ī		T
		Former Bush Administration Justice Department lawyer John Yoo spoke at the Commonwealth Club of California about presidential power in times of national crisis. Yoo is best known as one of the authors of the "torture memos," which provided the basis for enhanced interrogation of enemy
2/5	NATL POL	combatants.	John Yoo The national unemployment rate dropped to 9.7% in January, but businesses remain reluctant to hire, and financial markets are still jittery. State Economist Tom Stinson joins Midday in the MPR studios to discuss the condition of the economy 2/8	BUS ECON	here in Minnesota.	Tom Stinson While there's some agreement among world leaders on the need to cap carbon, there's plenty of debate over how much to cut and how to do that. A new documentary from America Abroad explores the questions surrounding carbon emissions. It's called,
		"The Carbon Conundrum: Confronting Climate
2/8	SOCIAL ISSUES	Change."
2/0	SOCIAL ISSUES	Nearly all the soldiers from the Minnesota National Guard's 34th Infantry Division are back home with family and friends after serving 10 months in southern Iraq. What's in store beyond the 2/9	SOCIAL ISSUES	immediate homecoming?	Ross Holtan, Manfred Tatzmann
	500112165026	Former Vice President Walter Mondale speaks	1000 1101001, 11011100 1 0001 about presidential power as part of the University 2/9	NATL POL	of Minnesota's "Headliners" series.	Walter Mondale
217	TWILLIOE	Colin Kahl serves as Deputy Assistant Secretary of	vv arter ivrolidate State for the Middle East. He just returned from three trips to Iraq, the latest with Vice President
2/10	INTL POL	Biden	Colin Kahl
2 /10	INTETOL		Andreas Kluth, Sharon Waxman,
		An 'Intelligence Squared' debate features three	Joseph "Gray" Davis, Van Jones, panelists FOR and three panelists AGAINST the	Lawrence O'Donnell, Bobby
2/10	NATL POL	proposition: California is the first failed state.	Shriver Minnesota Gov. Tim Pawlenty delivers his final State of the State address, speaking to a joint meeting of the Minnesota House and Senate about 2/11	STATE POL	the challenges facing Minnesota.	Tim Pawlenty Past legislative leaders and political analysts react to Gov. Tim Pawlenty's speech, his final State of 2/11	STATE POL	the State address as the governor of Minnesota.	Jim Ulland, Bob Vanasek School superintendent and former Republican Minn. House Speaker David Jennings shares his ideas on the education reform proposals being 2/12	STATE POL	considered at the capitol.	David Jennings
2/12	STATE POL	 	David Jennings

		For soldiers deployed to Iron and Afghanistan the For soldiers deployed to Iraq and Afghanistan, the prospect of returning home is a hopeful one. Yet, upon returning, many veterans face challenges of reintegrating into day-to-day life. Veterans, their families and supporters gathered in MPR's UBS _		Forum to share stories and advice about returning
2/12	SOCIAL ISSUES	home.
		Foremost Reagan biographer Lou Cannon and award-winning White House reporter Carl Cannon join Midday for a Presidents Day program about Ronald Reagan, who was elected to the White 2/15	HISTORY	House 30 years ago.	Lou Cannon, Carl Cannon MPR political editor Mike Mulcahy and Capitol reporter Tom Scheck explain the details of Gov.
		Tim Pawlenty's supplemental budget proposal
2/15	STATE POL	which he released this morning.	Mike Mulcahy, Tom Scheck Legislators in charge of health and human services budget decisions discuss Gov. Pawlenty's budget-2/16	STATE POL	cutting proposals announced Monday.	Matt Dean, Thomas Huntley Pulitzer Prize-winning historian Garry Wills speaks at the Commonwealth Club of California about his new book, "Bomb Power: The Modern Presidency and the National Security State." Wills argues that the invention of the atomic bomb significantly 2/16	HISTORY	changed power dynamics in Washington.	Garry Wills Parts of Minnesota have seen more than three feet of snow this winter. University of Minnesota Climatologist and Meteorologist Mark Seeley joins Midday to talk about the winter and other
2/17	HEALTH SCI	Minnesota weather topics.	Mark Seeley
		University of Minnesota Climatologist and Meteorologist Mark Seeley joins Midday for a second hour to talk more about winter and other
2/17	HEALTH SCI	Minnesota weather topics.	Mark Seeley
		Hear three recent examples of in-depth reporting from Minnesota Public Radio News: Laura Yuen's report on Somalis in Minnesota, Jess Mador's report on the returning Red Bulls, and Tom Crann's 00 CT 1 T T T T T T T T T T T T T T T T T	interview with the wife and friend of Ben Larson,	27/4
2/18	SOCIAL ISSUES	who died in the Haiti earthquake.	N/A Newsweek editor Jon Meacham discusses what is happening to political discourse in America, and what he thinks the country needs to do about it.
		Meacham spoke at the University of St. Thomas as 0/10	AVARE DOS	part of the university's annual Public Discourse
2/18	NATL POL	Lecture Series.	Jon Meacham

		Congressional scholar Norman Ornatain weighs in Congressional scholar Norman Ornstein weighs in on the state of affairs in Washington. Does the public support anything the Congress is considering passing? Does the Congress support anything the public wants? Does anyone support 2/19	NATL POL	the President and what HE wants?	Norman Ornstein Rev. Joseph Lowery was on the front lines of the Civil Rights struggle, working closely with Martin Luther King Jr. Lowery helped lead the Montgomery bus boycott and headed up a broader push to fight Jim Crowe segregation. He spoke recently at the John F. Kennedy Presidential 2/19	HISTORY	Library in Boston about his life and work.	Joseph Lowery On George Washington's birthday, Pulitzer Prize-winning historian David McCullough speaks about America's first president and Washington's influence on one of the most important years in American history. McCullough is the author of the 2/22	HISTORY	bestseller, "1776."	David McCullough
		MPR Chief Economics Correspondent Chris Farrell joins Midday in the studio to answer listener questions about the economy and personal finance.
		Farrell is out with a new book, "The New Frugality: How to Consume Less, Save More, and 2/23	BUS ECON	Live Better."	Chris Farrell
		MPR Chief Economics Correspondent Chris Farrell
		answers more listener questions about the economy 2/23	BUS ECON	and personal finance.	Chris Farrell Pulitzer Prize-winning author Thomas Ricks discusses the Iraq war and his book, "The Gamble: General Petraeus and the American Military
2/24	INTL POL	Adventure in Iraq."	Thomas Ricks Award-winning Minnesota history author Dave Kenney discusses the history of the Boy Scouts in central Minnesota and western Wisconsin. Kenney is out with a new book on that subject, "Honor Bright: A Century of Scouting in Northern Star
2/24	HISTORY	Council."	Dave Kenney j Reverend Jim Wallis, speaking at the Westminster Town Hall Forum about his new book
		"Rediscovering Values on Wall Street, Main Street and Your Street: A Moral Compass for the New 2/25	SOCIAL ISSUES	Economy."	Jim Wallis
2,25	SCENIE ISSUES	J·

		President Oheme Seneter Lemon Alexander (P.
		President Obama, Senator Lamar Alexander (R-Tenn.)Senate Majority Leader Harry Reid (D-Nevada)and Rep. John Kline (R-Minn.)discuss health care and health insurance reform with colleagues at a day-long summit today in	Barack Obama, Lamar Alexander, 2/25	NATL POL	Washington.	Harry Reid, John Kline
		A day after President Barack Obama gathered top lawmakers in Washington for a bipartisan summit on health care, former U.S. Sen. Dave Durenberger, Chair of the National Institute of Health Policy, assesses the ideas and 2/26	NATL POL	accomplishments of the all-day session.	Dave Durenberger Dr. Francis Collins, director of the National Institutes of Health, discusses recent leaps in biomedical research and what those leaps mean for American medicine. Collins is the featured guest at 2/26	HEALTH SCI	the National Press Club in Washington, D.C.	Francis Collins Three Independence Party candidates for governor join Gary Eichten on Midday to discuss issues	Rob Hahn, Tom Horner, John
3/1	STATE POL	facing the state and take questions from listeners.	Uldrich Thomas Goetz, executive editor of Wired magazine, discusses his new book, "The Decision Tree: Taking Control of Your Health in the New Era of Personalized Medicine." Goetz was in MPR's UBS Forum for the series, "Policy and a 3/1	HEALTH SCI	Pint."	Thomas Goetz
		The state's budget deficit has narrowed from a projected $1.2 billion to just under $1 billion.
		Former State Finance Commissioner Pam Wheelock and former DFL Sen. Majority Leader Roger Moe join Midday to discuss the new forecast
3/2	STATE POL	and what it means for the legislative session.	Pam Wheelock, Roger Moe ~	Cory Booker, the mayor of Newark, New Jersey, speaks at the Westminster Town Hall Forum in Minneapolis about efforts in his city to bridge the 3/2	EDUCATION	achievement gap and help at-risk youth.	Cory Booker
3/2	EDUCATION	asing tomone gap and note at 110K youth	Coty Booker
		The state's budget deficit has narrowed to $994 million, but fixing it won't be easy. DFL House Speaker Margaret Anderson Kelliher and DFL Senate Majority Leader Larry Pogemiller join Midday in the studio to discuss what to do about 3/3	STATE POL	the deficit and other issues at the Capitol.	Margaret Anderson Kelliher, Larry Pogemiller
3/3	STATE POL	the deficit and other issues at the Capiton.	Larry rogeniniei

		Nobal Priza winning aconomist Joseph Stiglitz Nobel Prize-winning economist Joseph Stiglitz looks at what we've learned from the economic downturn and how to prevent another crisis.
2 /2	PHI ECON	Stiglitz spoke at the Commonwealth Club of	T 1 0 1 1
3/3	BUS ECON	California	Joseph Stiglitz Veteran auto-industry journalist Paul Eisenstein joins Midday to discuss the latest news on Toyota and other developments in the auto industry. The 3/4	BUS ECON	Twin Cities Auto Show starts on Saturday	Paul Eisenstein
		One of Minnesota's best-known children's authors, Kate DiCamillo, is one of six nominees for the Most Engaging Author in the American Booksellers Association's 2010 Indies Choice Book Awards. She spoke with MPR's Cathy Wurzer
3/4	CULTURE/ARTS	about her writing last fall at the Fitzgerald Theater.	Kate DiCamillo Minnesota budget officials released a new forecast this week, narrowing the state's deficit to $994 million. Meanwhile, The Labor Department reports the percentage of Americans without a job last month was 9.7 percent, identical to the January figure. Economist Louis Johnston joins Midday to 3/5	BUS ECON	answer listener questions about the state economy.	Louis Johnston
3/3	Besileer	Former Massachusetts governor and 2008	Doub volliston presidential candidate Mitt Romney is out with a new book, "No Apology: The Case for American Greatness." He speaks at the National Press Club in 3/5	NATL POL	Washington D.C.	Mitt Romney
3/3	NATETOL	Dozens of people were killed in Baghdad Sunday	White Rominey as Iraqis went to the polls in an election that will help shape the future of the country. Columbia University International Affairs Professor Austin
2/0	INTEL DOI	Long joins Midday to analyze Sunday's election,	Austin I and 3/8	INTL POL	and what it means for security in the region.	Austin Long
		"The Hurt Locker" won best picture and five other prizes Sunday at the Academy Awards. The awards include best director honors for Kathryn Bigelow.
		Minnesota Public Radio's Movie Maven Stephanie Curtis joins Midday in studio to talk about Oscar 3/8	CULTURE/ARTS	winners and losers.	Stephanie Curtis DFL Sen. Tom Bakk, chair of the Senate Tax Committee, and Republican Sen. Julianne Ortman, ranking minority member of that committee, join Midday to discuss state taxes and whether the sales tax should be expanded to include a tax on 3/9	STATE POL	clothing.	Tom Bakk, Julianne Ortman

		II C Trada Danragantativa Dan Viels diagrasses the U.S. Trade Representative Ron Kirk discusses the Obama Administration's trade agenda. Kirk is the 2 /0	NATE DOL	featured guest at the National Press Club in	D W. I
3/9	NATL POL	Washington, D.C.	Ron Kirk President Obama is in St. Louis drumming up support for his health reform bill and says he wants 240		a Congressional vote within a week. Will health
3/10	NATL POL	care pass, or die on the vine?	Steven Smith Elizabeth Strohfus is among about 1000 women who will receive a Congressional Gold Medal today for their service during World War II. As Women Airforce Service Pilots, or WASPs, these women tested and transported planes in the U.S. so that male pilots could go overseas for combat. They 2/10	HICTORY	were the first women to fly military planes, and	Elizabeth Studber
3/10	HISTORY	their work was extremely dangerous.  Sabina Zimering is a Polish Jew who survived the	Elizabeth Strohfus Holocaust and now lives in Minnesota. She and her sister made it through the war by pretending to be Catholics, while at the same time working in a hotel full of German soldiers. A play based on her story is currently on stage at the History Theatre in 3/10	CULTURE/ARTS	St. Paul.	Sahuina Zimanina
3/10	CULTURE/ARTS	Minnesota's top education official, Alice Seagren,	Sabrina Zimering joins Midday to answer listener questions about school funding, education policy issues, testing, 3/11	EDUCATION	teacher quality and more.	Alice Seagren
3/11	EDUCATION	An 'Intelligence Squared' debate features three	Ance Scagien panelists FOR and three panelists AGAINST the proposition: The U.S. should step back from its 3/11	INTL POL	special relationship with Israel.	Roger Cohen, Itamar Rabinovich, Rashid Khalidi, Stuart Eizenstat
3/11	INTETOE	State Demographer Tom Gillaspy discusses the	Rasina Khanai, Stuart Elzenstat history and current practices of the Census and the 3/12	SOCIAL ISSUES	demographic trends in Minnesota.	Tom Gillaspy
3/12		Veterinarian Kate An Hunter stops by the MPR	Tom Gmaspy studios with her dog, Ansel, to answer questions 3/12	HEALTH SCI	about animal care and training.	Kate An Hunter
5,12		The author of "Water Follies" and "Unquenchable:	1400 140 140000 America's Water Crisis and What to Do About It"
3/15	ENVIRONMENT	joins MIDDAY to explore the issues.	Robert Glennon
5, 15	211111111111111
		Former House Majority Leader Dick Armey, a strong force behind the tea party movement, will 3/15	NATL POL	speak about the future of the Republican Party.	Dick Armey
3113	TWILLIOL	speak about the fatale of the Republican Fally.	Dick runicy

		The former head of the GAO joins MIDDAY to talk about his new book, "Comeback America: Turning the Country Around and Restoring Fiscal 3/16	BUS ECON	Responsibility."	David M. Walker, Tim Penny
3/10	DUS ECON	Joel Kotkin, an expert on economic and social	David M. Walker, Thin Felliny trends, is out with a new book about how the U.S. will evolve over the next four decades. It's titled,
		"The Next Hundred Million: America in 2050." Kotkin spoke at the Los Angeles Central Library as 2/16	COCIAI ICCLIEC	part of the library's "Aloud" series.	Last Wastern
3/16	SOCIAL ISSUES	The head of Minnesota's statewide teachers union	Joel Kotkin Education Minnesota answers questions about 2/17	EDUCATION	teacher quality, training and tenure.	Tom Dooher
3/17	EDUCATION	Veteran political journalists John Heilemann and	Tom Dooner
		Mark Halperin are out with a sweeping account of the 2008 campaign. It's called, "Game Change:
		Obama and the Clintons, McCain and Palin, and
		the Race of a Lifetime." The two journalists talked about their book at the Commonwealth Club of 3/17	NATL POL	California.	John Heilemann, Mark Helperin
3/17	NAILFOL	The chairs of the House Tax Committee and Senate	John Heilemann, Mark Halperin Finance Committee join Midday to answer questions about their plans to address the billion 3/18	STATE POL	dollar state budget deficit.	Ann Lenczewski, Richard Cohen
3/10	STATE FOL	Paul Light, professor of Public Service at New	Ann Lenczewski, Richard Cohen York University and one of the nation's leading experts on government, considers whether social entrepreneurship can significantly change the world. He spoke in St. Paul at Macalester College's 3/18	BUS ECON	annual Mitau Lecture.	Paul Light
3/10	BOD ECOIV	MPR Chief Meteorologist joins Midday to	Tuai Eigin celebrate the first day of spring Saturday, warmer 3/19	HEALTH SCI	weather and rising waters	Paul Huttner On the 7th anniversary of the Iraq war, Midday features excerpts from two America Abroad documentaries one about Iraq, and the other 3/19	INTL POL	about Yemen.
		Two national experts explain all the details and broader policies of the health insurance reform bill passed Sunday. President Obama is expected to	David Durenberger, Susan Bartlett
3/22	NATL POL	sign it Tuesday.	Foote Journalist Steve Roberts speaks at the City Club of Cleveland about his new book, "From Every End of This Earth: 13 Families and the New Lives They 3/22	SOCIAL ISSUES	Made in America."	Steve Roberts

		University of Minnesota family practice physician Dr. Jon Hallberg joins Midday in the studio to talk
3/23	HEALTH SCI	about medical issues in the news.	Jon Hallberg
0,20	112,12,111,001	President Barack Obama has signed into law a bill	- Con Franceis that dramatically changes the nation's entire health care system. The bill, passed by the U.S. House in a dramatic, party-line vote Sunday night, was a hard-fought victory for President Obama and could 3/23	NATL POL	help shape his legacy.
3/23	TWILLION	MPR political analysts size up the race for delegates supporting candidates for Governor and Congress. Six Gubernatorial candidates are sitting legislators, working for and against the current 3/24	STATE POL	Governor they want to replace.	Todd Rapp, Maureen Shaver
3/21	STATETOE	An 'Intelligence Squared' debate features three	Todd Rapp, Madreen Bhaver
		panelists FOR and three panelists AGAINST the proposition: Don't blame teachers unions for our	Rod Paige, Randi Weingarten, 3/24	EDUCATION	failing schools.	Terry Moe, Larry Sand, Kate McLaughlin, Gary Smuts
3/24	EDUCATION	The Attorneys General in 13 states have already	McLaughini, Gary Shiuts sued on the basis that it is unconstitutional to require Americans to buy health insurance, and some say the law violates states' rights. South Dakota's Attorney General and Minnesota's former Attorney General discuss the constitutional issues
3/25	NATL POL	involved.	Marty Jackley, Mike Hatch
3/23	NATETOE	David Lampton, a professor at the Johns Hopkins	Wiarty Jackicy, Wirke Haten School of Advanced International Studies and the founding director of China studies at The Nixon Center in Washington, D.C., speaks live at the 3/25	INTL POL	Westminster Town Hall Forum in Minneapolis.	David Lampton
3/23	INTLFOL	DFL delegates in the 6th Congressional district	David Lampton meet Saturday to endorse a candidate to run against Republican incumbent Michele Bachmann. The two DFLers in the race are Maureen Reed and state 3/26	STATE POL	Sen. Tarryl Clark.	Tarryl Clark, Maureen Reed
3/20	STATEFUL	Son. Turryr Clurk.	Tarryi Ciark, Maureen Reeu
		In a series of reports, MPR news explores how 3/26	HEALTH SCI	changing our food culture could help cure obesity.
		On Sunday, Israeli PM Benjamin Netanyahu played down tensions with the US and a top Obama administration official said Israel is a valued friend and great ally. What is the future of US-Israel 2/20	INTI DOI	relations?	Michael Parnett
3/29	INTL POL	relations:	Michael Barnett

		At least 37 people have been killed after two female suicide bombers blew themselves up in the Moscow subway during morning rush hour.
		Officials are blaming the carnage on rebels from the region that includes Chechnya. The BBC's "World Have Your Say" goes live to Moscow for the latest news, and considers what the subway 3/29	INTL POL	bombings mean for Russia.
		The Speaker of the House and the Senate Majority Leader join Midday at the start of the Passover-Easter break in the legislative session to answer questions about what's been accomplished so far,	Margaret Anderson Kelliher, 3/30	STATE POL	and priorities for the rest of the 2010 session.	Larry Pogemiller Deborah Amos, who covers Iraq for National Public Radio, is out with a new book that examines the effect the Iraq War has had on the four million Sunnis displaced by the downfall of Saddam Hussein's regime. Amos discussed her book, "Eclipse of the Sunnis," at the University of St.
		Thomas as part of MPR's Broadcast Journalist
3/30	INTL POL	Series.	Deborah Amos Two other states received $100-500 million in federal "Race to the Top" money for their schools, and Minnesota's application didn't even make the 3/31	EDUCATION	final cut. Can Minnesota be a leader in education?	Joe Nathan President Barack Obama says he's expanding offshore oil drilling along the Atlantic coast, arguing that America must break its dependency on foreign oil and rely more on "homegrown fuels and clean energy." The move reverses long-standing 3/31	NATL POL	government policy.	Barack Obama U.S. Sen. Byron Dorgan, a democrat from North Dakota, shocked many political observers in January when he announced that he won't seek another term on the ballot. After nearly 30 years in Congress, Dorgan discusses life in the Senate and 3/31	NATL POL	the biggest issues facing Congress today.	Byron Dorgan

CATEGORIES:

International Politics/Government

National Politics/Gov

State Politics/Gov

Education

Health/Science

Business/Economics

Sports

Culture/Arts

Social Issues

Religion

Media

Environment

History